1873.

LAND REVENUE.

The Land Revenue is derived from the sale and rent of Lands.

The Sale of Lands is regulated by the following General Order No. CLXXI dated 29th September, 1873 :—

RULES FOR THE SALE OF CROWN LANDS IN THE COLONY OF THE STRAITS SETTLEMENTS.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Governor for special reasons in any particular case, no land belonging to the Crown in the Colony of the Straits Settlements will in future be disposed of except under the following conditions :—

Classification of Lands.

Lands divided into Classes.

1. Lands at any time available for sale will be divided into the following Classes.

A. Building lots within the Municipal limits of the Towns.

B. Lands intended for the cultivation of Tapioca, Gambier, and other exhausting produce.

C. Lands intended for the cultivation of Paddy or Grain of any sort, for Cocoanut, Sugarcane, Fruit, and Spice Plantations, or for general garden land, and for building purposes in suburban Districts.

Sale of Building Lots—Class A.

Building lots.

2. No lands under this Class may be sold without the express sanction of the Governor.

Disposal of

3. Whenever it shall be determined upon by Government to dispose of any land under this Class, such land will be laid out by the Survey Department in suitable lots according to the situation of the ground, and the probable requirements of intending purchasers.

Advertisement.

4. When such lots are duly surveyed, and marked out, and the plan approved by the Governor, they will be advertised for sale by publication in the Government Gazette, and by hand-bills in the English and native languages, posted upon the ground, and in other public localities.

Contents of Advertisement.

5. Such advertisement shall contain full particulars of the site, area, and nature of the land, of the conditions of sale, and the date at which such land will be exposed for sale, which, as a rule, shall not be less than one month after the first issue of the advertisement. When for any reason a sale is deferred from the date originally fixed, notice of the date to which it is deferred, shall be published in like manner, with at least one week's notice.

Sale.

6. On the day of sale, the land is to be sold by public auction, to the highest bidder above the upset price, and if there be no bid above the upset price, and there has been an application for the land, it may be sold to the applicant at the upset price.

Upset price.

7. The upset price will be fixed at a certain rate per square foot, and will be determined, in each case, with reference to the situation, and relative value of the land.

Terms of sale.

8. All such lands shall be sold on leases for 999 years, and shall be in all cases subject to an annual quit-rent.

Quit-rent.

9. Such quit-rent shall be fixed in proportion to the size and position of the lots.

Purchase-money.

10. The purchaser shall pay one-third of the purchase-money to the Land Office immediately after the sale, and the remainder on the issue of the lease, which will be granted within three months of the date of sale.

LAND REVENUE.

Non-compliance with conditions.

11. If the purchaser shall fail to comply with the conditions of sale, the land will be re-sold at his expense and risk, and any part-payments which may have been made will be forfeited.

Sale of Waste Lands—Classes B. and C.

Application.

12. Applications for the purchase of land under Classes B and C must be made to the local head of the Land Office in each Settlement, and in every application the following particulars must be stated:—

1st. The estimated area in acres of the land applied for.
2nd. The situation of the land, and its boundaries as accurately as can be ascertained.

Limits as to area.

13. As a rule, no greater extent of land than 100 acres will be granted to the same individual, but any person desirous of obtaining a greater quantity, or of increasing the size of his holding beyond this extent may make a special application for the same, which will be submitted for the consideration of the Governor.

If, on completion of the survey provided for in Clause 15, it appears that the area of any lot not specially granted exceeds 100 acres, the excess will be excluded from the grant.

Conditions as to compactness and frontage.

14. Every lot must be compact, including no more than one tract of land in a "ring fence." This condition, however, will not be rigidly insisted upon, where, as in the case of small patches of jungle, or hillocks interspersed among land already leased, or settled upon, it is practicably inapplicable. If the land touches a public road, or a navigable river, the length of the road, or river frontage, will be fixed in each case by the Survey Department.

Survey.
Survey fees.
Cost of clearing boundaries.

15. If the local head of the Land Office is satisfied that the land may properly be sold, and it has not been surveyed; he will cause it to be surveyed, and its boundaries demarcated; the cost of such survey and demarcation being first deposited by the applicant together with the cost of clearing the boundaries which will be estimated by the Land Office. If at, or before, the time of survey, the applicant shall himself clear the boundaries, the sum deposited by him for that purpose will be refunded.

16. The cost of survey and demarcation will be according to the following scale:—

Lots below 10 acres	.. $4.00	(17*s.* 0*d.*)
above 10 and under 100 ..	.. 0.40 per acre.	(1*s.* 8½*d.*)
above 100 and under 250 ..	.. 0.25 „	(1*s.* 0¾*d.*)
above 500 acres	.. 0.15 „	(0*s.* 7½*d.*)

The cost of simple demarcation will be calculated at 20 cents per acre.

Amended application.

17. If it appears that the applicant has not complied with the conditions in Clause 15, the Land Office may call for an amended application, and in the event of a revised application not being given in within 15 days, the applications will be held to be cancelled, and any deposit made on its account will be returned, less the amount of expense actually incurred for survey and clearing boundaries.

Survey before sale.

18. As a general rule, no lot not already surveyed is to be sold until it has been surveyed and demarcated. Such survey need only be in sufficient detail to ensure the ready identification of the boundaries of the lot, and to ascertain its area.

Suspension of survey.

19. Instances may occur in which it may be considered desirable to dispose of lands applied for as above when a survey may at the time be impracticable. The application, in such cases, must be accompanied by a distinct and intelligible specification of the situation, and area of the land, and the Survey Department will then prepare a rough plan, shewing the situation, the direction of the boundaries, the length, breadth, and estimated area, and any existing land marks, natural or artificial, by which it can be identified when it comes to be surveyed, and in all cases, the applicant must clear the boundaries before such land is sold to him.

Advertisement.

20. When the land has been surveyed and demarcated as provided for under Clause 17, or only demarcated as under Clause 18, it will be advertised for sale by publication in the Government Gazette, and by hand-bills in the English and native languages, posted upon the ground, and in other public localities. The sum of $1 (4*s.* 3*d.*) must be paid by the applicant at the time of application to meet the cost of such advertisement.

Contents of advertisement.

21. Such advertisement shall contain full particulars of the position, area, and nature of the land to be sold, of the conditions of sale, and the date at which such land will be exposed for sale, which, as a rule, shall not be less than one month after the first issue of the advertisement. When for any reason a sale is deferred from the date originally fixed, notice of the date to which it is deferred shall be published in like manner with at least one week's notice.

Sale.

22. On the day of sale the land shall be disposed of as in Clause 6, and care shall be taken, at the time of selling, to proclaim publicly the conditions of sale, and all Government rights in reference to foreshores, roads, streams, canals, minerals, and materials for roads or other public works.

Refund of advances to original applicant.

23. In the event of the land being sold to a higher bidder on the day of sale, any sums advanced under Clauses 15 or 19, will be refunded to the original applicant, and charged to the actual purchaser.

LAND REVENUE.

Class B. Terms of sale.

24. Lands under Class B will be sold on leases for ten years at an upset price, and subject to an annual quit-rent. A renewal of the lease may be obtained for an additional ten years on payment of the same quit-rent as required by the original lease, and without any further premium.

Upset price.

25. The upset price for such lands shall be $1 (4s. 3d.) per acre at Singapore, Penang, and Province Wellesley, and 50 cents (2s. 1½d.) per acre at Malacca.

Quit-rent.

26. The quit-rent for such lands shall be 30 cents (1s. 3¼d.) per acre at Singapore, and Penang, and 25 cents (1s.0¾d) per acre at Malacca, and Province Wellesley.

Class C. Terms of sale. Malacca.

27. Lands under Class C at Singapore, Penang, and Province Wellesley, and building lots in suburban districts at Malacca, will be sold on leases for 999 years, at an upset price, and subject to an annual quit-rent. At Malacca, such lands, except lots for building purposes as defined above, will be sold on leases for the same term, at an upset price, and subject to the customary payment of one-tenth part of the produce thereof to Government, such payment to be made in kind, or in the form of a sum of money fixed by Government in commutation of the payment in kind.

Upset Price.

28. The upset price for such lands, except lots for building purposes as defined in Clause 30, shall be $1 (4s. 3d.) for every 10 acres, or any less area than 10 acres at Singapore, and $1 (4s 3d.) for an acre, or any portion of an acre, at Penang, Province Wellesley, and Malacca.

Quit-rent.

29. The quit-rent for such lands shall be 30 cents (1s. 3¼d.) per acre at Singapore, and Province Wellesley, and 40 cents (1s. 8½d.) per acre at Penang, and 40 cents (1s. 8½d) per acre for building lots, as defined above, at Malacca.

Exception.

30. In the case of lots for building purposes having a frontage on the sea, on any public road, or navigable river, the upset price shall be fixed, in each particular case, according to the relative value of the land at the time.

The rent of lands disposed of previous to this General Order is regulated by the rules which were in force prior to the date of the regulations of September, 1873, and were as follows :—

AT SINGAPORE.

A renewal of the Lease may be obtained for an additional ten years, whenever desired, on payment of Quit-rent, but without any further premium. Lands so let to be classed under head A.

Singapore, 9th May, 1870.

Previous to this the disposal of these lands was regulated by the following rules framed under Act XVI. of 1839 :—

1. All persons holding Land under Regulation I. of 1830, designated Periodical Leases, save and except Leases Nos. 29, 30, and 113, shall have the option of commuting their future rents by obtaining a Deed of Sale in perpetuity on payment of an aggregate of eight years' purchase, calculated at $2.50 (10s. 7½d.) per acre per annum, and the holder of the Leases Nos. 29, 30, and 113, in like manner, at $5 (£1 1s. 3d.) per acre per annum.

The holders of Leases at Buffalo Village, and also of Leases Nos. 404, 405, 500, 507, and 616, shall also have the privilege of commuting their future rents by a payment equivalent to eight years' purchase.

2. All unoccupied and waste lands, the property of Government, required for agricultural purposes, shall be disposed of by private or public sale in full property at from Rs. 5 to Rs. 10, (10s. to 20s.) and upwards per acre, according to the nature of the soil, locality, and other circumstances.

3. All unlicensed squatters or occupiers of land who have no title to the ground, beyond that which their labour in reclaiming the ground from a primitive forest may have given them, will be allowed a Deed of Sale in perpetuity on terms stated in paragraph 2.

4. Such squatters or occupiers of Government lands who may refuse to accede to the above terms will be dealt with under the provisions of Act XVI. of 1839.

LAND REVENUE.

5. In the whole of the Deeds of Sale in perpetuity hereafter to be issued at Prince of Wales' Island, Province Wellesley, and Singapore, provisions for the resumption of land, if one-fourth be not cleared and cultivated within five years, will be inserted. A form of the said Deed may be seen on application at the Land Office, where the general direction of the roads which Government may contemplate opening, and every requisite information as to disposal of public lands will be readily communicated.

6. Prior to issuing Deeds of Sale, portions of land will be marked off, and reserved for the supply of timber, earth, stone, and other materials for roads, drains, bridges, and other public works.

A line of 60 feet inwards from high-water mark will also be reserved along the coast of the Island of Singapore.

7. Parties in possession of lands which have been surveyed will be furnished with Deeds of Sale at an early date on the payment of the price determined on by the Resident Councillor and Collector, subject to an appeal to the Governor of the Straits Settlements, should the rate per acre be considered unreasonable or excessive by the occupiers of the land.

8. Such of the Lessees or Holders of Grants, above referred to, at Prince of Wales' Island, Province Wellesley, and Singapore, as may not consent to the terms fixed, will be permitted to abide by their existing engagements.

Singapore, 20th December, 1844.

AT PENANG AND PROVINCE WELLESLEY.

1. Every person holding land on Grant subject to an Annual Quit-rent, exceeding $1 (4*s.* 3*d.*) per acre, shall have the option of commuting the same by the payment of an aggregate of from 5 to 8 years' purchase at the discretion of the Chief Local Authority, and any person paying less than $1 on such conditions as that Officer may determine.

2. Holders of Leases on which the rent reserved exceeds $1 (4*s.* 3*d.*) shall have the option of receiving a Deed of Sale in perpetuity in lieu of their Leases, on payment of an aggregate of from 5 to 8 years' purchase at the discretion of the Chief Local Authority, and all persons paying less than $1 on Lease or Cutting Paper, on such conditions as that Officer may determine.

3. All unoccupied and waste lands, the property of Government, required for agricultural purposes shall be disposed of by private or public sale, in full property, at Rs. 5 to 10 (10*s.* to 20*s.*) and upwards per acre, according to the nature of the soil and other circumstances.

20*th December,* 1844.

Some subsequent Regulations were laid down by the Governor in a Minute, in reference to the new lands at Province Wellesley, on 11th February, 1870, as follows:—

1. Every occupier of land in the new territory must establish his claim to it to the satisfaction of the Lieutenant-Governor before it can be recognized.

2. If anyone can shew an undoubted written document, dated before the transfer of the territory to us, conferring upon him a title in perpetuity free from all rent, charge, or service, his right to the land will be admitted, and he will be given a Grant in fee simple, free of all charges except the fee for surveying. This will be called Class A.

3. If anyone can shew, by written or satisfactory verbal evidence, that he has occupied land prior to the transfer of the territory to us, with the sanction of the Rajah, or his constituted authorities, he will be entitled to a Lease for 999 years on payment of survey fee, and the same rent, or payment in kind, as he was subject to under the Rajah's Government. If, through the land not being fully cultivated, the payment had not obtained its maximum, it will have to be increased in the same proportion it would have been under the Malay Government. This will be Class B.

4. Every other occupant of land will, if he chooses to accept it, be entitled to a Lease for 999 years on payment of the survey fee, and a rent calculated in proportion to that which will be paid by occupiers alluded to in the previous paragraph; but such Lease will only be given for land which the occupier can shew was actually in cultivation by him at the time of the transfer of the territory; great care should be taken that this class do not get Leases for more than this unless in any particular case the Lieutenant-Governor may think it desirable to grant more. This will be Class C.

5. It is very desirable that any payments in kind made by Class B should be commuted for a money payment, but this cannot be insisted on if the holder refuses it. No payment in kind is to be received from any holder in Class C.

6. I am not prepared to sell any land to existing occupiers, nor indeed to any one who can be prevailed upon to take a Lease. If this is strongly objected to, the declining purchaser must be informed that a very high rate will be expected for the land, and if he persists, he must make an application, stating what he is prepared to give. Each such case must be referred for the Governor's decision, and will be dealt with on its own merits.

7. No negotiation for the Lease of fresh land is to be entered into until the claims of the three Classes A, B, and C, have been disposed of. When this is done, the Government will be prepared to entertain proposals for Leases in perpetuity (999 years), or for such shorter periods as may appear advisable; care being taken that Leases are not granted of land containing valuable timber on such terms that the holder can cut the timber, clear a large profit on it, and then throw the land back on the hands of Government, having perhaps paid a trifling rental for two or three years only.

AT MALACCA.

The question of land tenure here is on quite a separate footing, and was regulated by Act XVI. of 1839, and again by Act XXVI. of 1861. It is thus stated by Mr. C. J. Irving, Auditor-General, who acted as Lieutenant-Governor of Malacca in 1870.

At the time of the cession of Malacca by the Dutch to the British Government in 1824, proprietary rights in the soil, which, according to the custom of all Malayan countries are inherent in the State, were found to have been made over almost entirely to certain private individuals. In 1828 these rights were recovered in respect of the greater part of the lands by agreement with the proprietors, under which they parted with their rights in consideration of certain fixed annuities to be paid to them by the British Government. The annuities amounted in the first instance to $7,729.22 per annum, but since then a portion of them has been redeemed, and at present the amount payable annually is $4,765.79. In the district of Nanning, which was acquired after the war in 1831 to 1833, the proprietary rights of the Government have never been alienated. With the exception, therefore, of lands in Malacca Proper, in respect of which no agreement was entered into with the proprietors in 1828, and of some small portions of land of which the fee simple has since been sold, the Government is the proprietor of the soil of the Settlement; subject, however, in respect of certain lands, to rights enjoyed by the occupiers—holding their lands in some cases by prescription, and in some cases under agreements entered into with the Government.

Prescriptive-right tenants hold their lands subject only to the obligation of keeping them under cultivation and paying the Government one-tenth of the produce.

All occupiers of lands not holding by prescription are now being required to take out Leases for their holdings, but, in the mean time, they are allowed to retain possession of their lands on payment of tenths in the manner described below. Leases are or have been granted on the followng terms:—

1. Leases for 999 years—
   Only three such Leases have been granted in 1863 and 1864. They are granted at low or nominal rents to religious bodies.
2. Leases for 99 years—
   Leases for this period have been granted for building lots in the neighbourhood of the town of Malacca.
3. Leases for 20 years—

This is the ordinary term for Leases of country and suburban lands. In the case of lands bearing fruit or other valuable trees, the rent is based on an estimate of the average value of the tithes of the produce of such trees. In the case of all other lands the rent is fixed at the following rates:—

Within a radius of 2-miles from the Flagstaff of Malacca...	...	50 cents	(2*s.* 1½*d.*) per annum.
Between the 2 and the 4-mile radius	...	45 do.	(1*s.* 11*d.*) „
Beyond the 4-mile radius	...	25 do.	(1*s.* 0¾*d.*) „

4. Leases for 10 years—

Leases for this period have been granted to persons desirous of cultivating tapioca. Tapioca is a crop of a very exhausting character, and after three crops without manure, the land is exhausted. Hence the planters are desirous of obtaining short Leases. There are two kinds of tapioca, viz., the white and the red. The white takes twelve months, and the red two years to come to maturity. Three crops of the red variety occupying a space of six years, may be stated as the outside of the profitable cultivation of tapioca on unmanured lands in Malacca.

5. Leases for 5 years—

Up to 1865, Leases were granted in some cases for this short period. The last of them will expire at the end of 1870.

In all Leases, except those for 99 years, there is a stipulation for the payment to the Government of a royalty of one-tenth on all minerals raised on the land.

The occupiers of lands not held under Leases are required to pay to the Government one-tenth of the produce. The tenths are levied in the following manner:—

Tenths on Paddy.—At harvest time in each year, an Officer of the Land Department visits the several districts, and, in conjunction with the Punghulus, or headmen, estimates the amount of the crops on the various lots. Statements are then prepared shewing the quantity of paddy to be furnished, as their tenths, by the different cultivators, which are given to the Punghulus, who collect the paddy accordingly. Except in a few outlying districts, the Punghulus as soon as they have collected the paddy hand it over to the "Paddy Farmer," who accounts for it to the Government at the rate of 4 cents (2*d.*) per gantang,—his profit being the difference between this rate and the market rate, which varies from 4½ to 5 cents (2¼*d.* to 2½*d.*) per gantang. In the outlying districts above referred to, where there is no Paddy Farmer, the Punghulus themselves account to the Government for the paddy collected by them, at rates varying from 3 to 4 cents (1½*d.* to 2*d*) per gantang according to the distance of the district from town.

Tenths on Cocoanuts and Fruits of every kind, including Nutmegs and Pepper.—These tenths are farmed out,—The farm of 1869 bringing $240 (£51) per annum. The Farmer receives in commutation of his tenths, in accordance with a received custom, from 3 to 6 cents (1½*d.*to3*d.*) per annum for each cocoanut tree according to their age and condition. As regards fruits, &c., in some cases the tenths are taken in kind as the fruits are brought to town for sale; in other cases an agreement is come to by the Farmer, the Cultivator, and the Pungulu as to the value of the crops, and tenths are paid accordingly in money.

Tenths on Sweet Toddy cut beyond four miles from town.—These tenths are farmed out: the Farm for 1869 was let for $192 (£40 16*s.* 0*d.* The practice in regard to this article in Malacca Proper is for the Farmer to levy one cake in thirty of the jaggery or coarse sugar which is manufactured out of the sweet toddy. In the Nanning District one cake in ten is levied.

Tenths on Forest Wood and Timber.—These tenths are farmed out: the Farm for 1871 realized $285 (£60 11*s.* 3*d.*) The tenths are collected in kind, or, by agreement with the owner, by means of a money commutation.

Tenths of Wood Oil, Rosins, Gutta Percha, Bark of Trees, Sago, Yams, Potatoes, Sugarcane, Gambier, and Sirih Leaves.—These tenths are farmed out: the Farm for 1870 realized $503. The tenths are collected in the same way as those on forest wood, &c.

Tenths on Tin.—These tenths (including the royalty reserved on Leased and also on Fee-simple Lands) are farmed out; the farm for 1871 was let for $551 (£117 1*s.* 9*d.*) The tenths are collected in the same way as those on forest wood, &c.

Tenths on Bricks and Tiles.—These tenths are commuted at 16 guilders, or $6 15½ cents (£1 6*s.* 1¾*d.*) per "burning." The right of levying at that rate on all bricks and tiles manufactured on Government Lands (except those manufactured by Government itself) is farmed out, and realized for 1871 $185.50 (£39 8*s.* 4½*d.*)

N.B.—Most of these farms have been discontinued since this paper was written.

LAND REVENUE.

The following fees are fixed under Act XVI. of 1839.

Service of Notice (arrears of Rent)	...	...	$0.50 (2s. 1½d.)
Attachment do. do.	...	...	1.00 (4s. 3d.)

The Total Land Revenue was in 1872, $85,310 (£18,128.)

RENTS EXCLUSIVE OF LAND.

The right to occupy the markets is farmed out yearly, and realises about $21,000 (£4,250.)

Under this head also are included the sums received for letting out certain Government Bungalows, and the rent paid for the regular hire of certain houses belonging to Government.

LICENSES.

Authorized by Excise Ordinance IV. of 1870.

Opium.—The exclusive privilege of retailing Opium, and of preparing Chandoo, or Opium Dross, is farmed out yearly, or for a term of years. It realizes about $500,000 (£106,250.)

Spirits.—This is a similar farm, and is the exclusive privilege of retailing Spirits. It realizes about $200,000 (£42.500.)

Toddy and Bhang.—The exclusive privilege to retail these articles is also yearly farmed out, and realizes a revenue of about $13,000 (£2,762 10s.)

Pawnbrokers.—The privilege to license Pawnshops is regulated by Ordinance VII. of 1872. This Ordinance requires a Pawnbroker to take a license, paying a fee to be fixed by Government, from time to time, and under certain rules.

For some years it has been the practice to farm out the right to license, and this yields about $27,000 (£5,737.)

The following Rules are observed with reference to Gunpowder Licenses, for which a fee of $5 (£1 1s. 3d.) each is charged:—

Under Ordinance VIII. of 1868.

Any person removing Gunpowder without a permit, or contrary to the terms of such permit, shall, on conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars, and the Gunpowder shall be seized and forfeited.

Any person removing Gunpowder from a Gunpowder Hulk or Magazine to any vessel or place on shore, shall do so in properly covered boats, which shall be provided with sufficient tarpaulins; and before removing Gunpowder in barrels from a boat to any place on shore, barrels shall be covered with tarpaulins.

REIMBURSEMENTS ON ACCOUNT OF THE PUBLIC WORKS AND CONVICT DEPARTMENTS.

I.—Convict Expenditure Recoverable.

From the Indian Government.

„ „ Ceylon Government.

At the time of the Transfer, 1st April, 1867, the Colony took over from the Indian Government its Transmarine Convict Establishments in the three Settlements. The terms upon which this was done are stated in a letter from the Secretary to the Government of India to the Governor of the Straits Settlements, No. 1558, Financial Department, dated the 25th July, 1864, as follows:—

"The Governor-General in Conncil is pleased to decide that the existing arrangement under which the "Straits Settlements charge the Indian Presidencies with all direct expenses for Indian Convicts and credit them "with the actual earning from private work, the entire cost of supervision, medical attendance, and Military "guards being borne by the Settlements as a set-of against the value of the labour of convicts who are employed "as peons, punkah-pullers, and in other capacities in public offices, and as artificers and labourers in the Depart-"ment of Public Works, should remain undisturbed."

The convicts taken over comprised, besides natives of India, certain prisoners from Ceylon and Hongkong. On the 1st April, 1867, the numbers were as follows:—

Indian Convicts. .	. .	2,356	or about 77¼ per cent.
Ceylon „ . .	. .	625	„ 20½ „
Hongkong „ . .	. .	68	„ 2¼ „
	Total . .	3,049

On the 31st December, 1872, the numbers were as follows:—

Indian Convicts. .	. .	1,202
Ceylon . .	. .	105
	Total . .	1,307

2.—Value of Stores and value of Convict labour employed in the Public Works.

With the view of maintaining the control of the Legislature over the disposal of the Convict labour, and of the stores (bricks, tiles, &c., &c.,) created by Convict labour, it is the practice to introduce into the estimates of "Works and Buildings," and "Roads, Streets, and Bridges," not only the proposed cash expenditure on account of the several works, but also the estimated value of the stores and Convict labour to be employed. And in the accounts the value of the stores and labour so employed, as shewn by statements prepared in the Public Works Department, is transferred month by month, the amounts being debited to the several works, and credited by contra to this account "Reimbursements."

The value of the labour is calculated according to the following rates:—

20 cents (10½*d.*) Artificers, 9 cents (4½*d.*) Coolies, 3 cents (1½*d.*) Invalids.

3*rd.*—Sale of Manufactures (House of Correction).

The local prisoners, distinguished from the Transmarine convicts, are largely employed in Rattan-work, Coir-work, and other manufactures. The proceeds of the sale of the articles manufactured are paid into the Treasury to the Credit of the general revenue.

4*th.*—Estimates of Deceased Convicts.

All estates of deceased Convicts fall to the Government, and it is only in certain special cases that the amounts are allowed to be paid to their representatives.

D. In the Statement accompanying the accounts for 1872, the Balance on 1st January 1873 was stated at $689,602.48. It is now correctly stated at $673,761.56. The difference arises from the amounts in the former statement for "Revenue in Arrear" and "Expenditure in Arrear" having been in certain particulars only estimated, while in this Statement they have been accurately ascertained, and also from certain additions to expenditure in arrear.

OF REVENUE, 1872, AND REVENUE, 1873.

	Cause of Increase or Decrease.
a.	Increase at Singapore of upwards of $6,000; decrease at Penang of about $3,500; no sales at Malacca.
b.	Increased collections at Singapore of $1,000, and at Penang of about $4,000, due to recovery of arrears, and particularly to the resumption of that part of the Land Office business at Penang which had been partially suspended after the defalcations brought to light in 1872.
c.	Increased collections at Singapore of upwards of $3,000, attributable to the payment of arrears due at the end of 1872; and at Penang of $300.
d.	The increase is chiefly at Singapore, where the Lands were let at higher rates in 1873.
e.	The Tin Farm at Malacca was abolished, and the tenths were collected by the Government in 1873. The result would seem to have justified the change. Prices were also unusually high during the year.
f.	This item is confined to Malacca, and the increase may be attributed to the number of new leases issued in 1872, and to the closer collection of arrears.
g.	This item is a very fluctuating one, dependent chiefly on the success of the paddy crops in Malacca.
h.	The increase is chiefly at Penang, where the practice of registering titles is on the increase.
i.	Ellenborough and China Town Markets were under repair for the greater part of 1873, and the revenue was in abeyance. On the other hand, the receipts in 1873 included arrears due at the end of 1872.
j.	The receipts in 1872 included arrears amounting to $577.18.
k.	The receipts in 1872 comprised 13 months' rent of the Opium Farm at Singapore, at $30,050, and $14,000 arrears of the old Spirit Farm. On the other hand, the Penang Opium and Spirit Farms were let at an increased rate from 1st April.
l.	The Farms were let at higher rates at Singapore, where also there was a recovery of a portion of arrears of the old Farm left due at the end of 1872.
m.	The Singapore Farm was let at a much lower rate. The variations at Penang and Malacca were unimportant.
n.	There was a falling-off of about $11,300 at Singapore, and $1,500 at Penang; and, on the other hand, an increase of about $400 at Malacca. These fluctuations, dependent on the course of trade, are not easy to account for. Although the revenue under this head does not equal that of 1872, which was exceptionally large, it exceeds that of any other year since the Transfer.

OF REVENUE, 1872, AND REVENUE, 1873.

	Cause of Increase or Decrease.
a.	This item, which has shewn a progressive increase since 1868, exhibits a still further advance both at Singapore and at Penang, doubtless owing to the expansion of the steamer traffic.
b.	These collections are brought to credit somewhat irregularly. The $20,727.99 in 1873 represents the amount (Rupees 47,042.8.7.) credited to the Colony in the Indian accounts from 1st April 1870 to 31st December 1872.
c.	Of this increase more than $1,000 was at Singapore. It may be attributed to the increasing passenger traffic.
d.	Increase at Singapore of $800, at Penang of $350, and at Malacca of $50, due to a more stringent enforcement of the rules, and to the increased license fees under Ordinance No. VIII of 1872.
e.	Increase at Singapore of about $200, and at Penang of nearly $1,000, due to the enforcement of the provisions of the same Ordinance, especially at Penang.
f.	Increase at Singapore of about $3,300, at Penang about $1,600, and at Malacca about $50. This source of revenue continues to increase, notwithstanding reductions in rates. The cause may be looked for in increased correspondence, and perhaps, to some extent, in the compulsory prepayment of letters between the Settlements under the new rates, and to the inland postal delivery.
g.	There is a falling-off of more than $2,000 at Singapore, but a small increase at Penang. The general result of decrease may be attributed in great measure to the partial abolition of compulsory pre-payment between the Settlements.
h.	In 1872 there was an exceptional receipt amounting to $10,000, being the estreated recognizances in a criminal case. Nearly all the Revenue Farms being re-let, the whole of the Excise fines become payable to the Farmers under the Excise Ordinance of 1870, and this accounts for the remainder of the decrease.
i.	Convicts removed to India and Ceylon in May and June.

OF REVENUE, 1872, AND REVENUE, 1873.

Cause of Increase or Decrease.
a. The stores are being gradually used up.
b. The Transmarine Convicts having been removed, these amounts represent chiefly the value of local Convict Labour, and this was not largely employed, except in the alterations to the Criminal Prisons at Singapore, and in laying out the grounds at Government House.
c. The decrease may be ascribed to the fact that under the new system of penal discipline the prisoners are less employed in productive labour than formerly. d. Attributable to the breaking-up of the Convict Establishment. e. $1,413.53 represents the credits in the Indian Government accounts from April 1867 to March 1870, settled in 1872. $32.58 represents the credits in the accounts from April 1870 to December 1872, settled in 1873. f. The increase is chiefly at Penang and Malacca, and arises from fines on Public Works Department Contractors being enforced in 1873, and from repayment by the War Department of expenses for maintenance of Military Prisoners.
g. The payments from the Singapore Municipality were two months in arrear at the end of 1873. This accounts for a decrease of $8,590. On the other hand, there was a special reduction of $667.10 in the Malacca contribution for 1872, which did not extend to 1873. h. An increase of $500 in Singapore, and of $1,475 at Penang, arising from the greater number of paying patients.
i. No reimbursement claimed in 1872.

Audit Office, Singapore,

1874.

REVENUE, 1872, AND REVENUE, 1873.

CAUSE OF INCREASE OR DECREASE.

a. This was a special receipt in 1872.

b. This represents the cash balances of the Pauper Hospital Committees at Penang and Malacca, and the subscriptions received on the same account, paid into the Treasury, in pursuance of the new arrangement, by which the charge of these institutions is undertaken by the Government. The Singapore balance was paid in, in January 1874.

c. Owing to the removal of the Transmarine Convicts, the boats and stores, &c., of the Public Works Department were sold.

d. The receipts in 1872 represented interest for a whole year, those in 1873 for only half-a-year, the interest for the second half of 1873 not being brought to credit till January 1874.

e. The amount received in 1872 was for a period of about 15 months to 31st October 1872; that in 1873 was for the half-year ended 30th April 1873, the interest for the half-year ended October 1873 not having been brought to credit till 1874.

f. The interest-bearing balances in the London and Westminster Bank were higher in 1873 than in 1872.

g. The receipts in 1872 represented interest from 14th January 1871 to 30th June 1872 on the advance of $7,000 to the Municipality of Penang. The receipts in 1873 comprised one half-year's interest on the loan of $70,000 made to the Municipality of Singapore in June 1873, and one year's interest on the advance to the Penang Municipality.

h. Interest for the period from 23rd April to 31st December on the loan of $45,000 made to H.H. the Maharajah of Johore in April 1873.

i. The remittances made in 1872 were unusually large. In 1873 no remittances were made after the early part of the year, owing to the very low rate of sterling exchange.

j. The receipts in 1873 comprised the profit on the whole of the Copper Coin received from India and England up to the end of 1872, as shewn in the statement of Revenue in Arrear accompanying the accounts for that year.

k. Interest on a temporary advance made to the Government of Mauritius by the Crown Agents from the balances in their hands accounts for almost the whole of this amount.

l. The Ordinance was only brought into operation at Singapore towards the close of 1872, and has since been extended to the other Settlements.

m. This is a variable item, consisting chiefly of repayments of amounts over-issued.

n. Amount received from the Sureties of the late Assistant Treasurer, Malacca, who was a defaulter in 1872.

o. The transfer of the balances to the credit of the Fund, under Ordinance No. VI. of 1871, took place in 1872.

of Expenditure, 1872, and Expenditure, 1873.

Cause of Increase or Decrease.
a. The increase in Salaries, $2,195.38, is attributable partly to some increase in the Interpreters' Department, and to the engagement of Free Messengers &c., on the withdrawal of the Convicts,—and partly to there having been fewer vacancies in 1873 than in 1872. The increase in Office Contingencies is $1,260.20, chiefly for cost of Telegrams.
b. The new Office of Assistant Collector of Land Revenue at Malacca was created in October, 1872.
c. Increase in Establishment as per Estimates, and extra labour duly sanctioned.
d. Increase of the salaries of the subordinates in the Malacca Treasury, about $100; the remainder is due to the necessary additions consequent on the withdrawal of the convicts, and to vacancies in 1872.
e. About $1,500 is due to the increase in the salaries of the Colonial Engineer and the 1st and 2nd Assistant Colonial Engineers, and to appointments to some subordinate offices formerly filled by Convicts. The remainder is accounted for by the fact that the temporary vacancies in 1872 were considerable.
f. The increase is chiefly in Allowances, being a proportion of certain fees allowed to officers of the department. Of course there is a correlative increase in the Revenue.
g. Half-pay as Commander of the Pluto, paid to Captain Fox in 1872, ceased in 1873.
h. Extension and re-organization of the Establishment at Singapore, authorized by Council.
i. Due chiefly to the temporary vacancies having been less considerable in 1873 than in 1872.
j. Some arrears of Sheriff's Salary at Singapore were paid in 1872, and some remained unappropriated in 1873.
k. Payment in 1872 of the biennial allowance of £200 to the Bishop Certain portions of the Chaplains' salaries for December, 1872, paid in the course of that month, though not due till January 1873.
l. The Establishments necessary for carrying out the Contagious Diseases Ordinance account for most of this increase. There were also—increased salaries of Colonial Surgeons, salary of Inspector of Hospitals, salaries of Apprentices at Madras $880 debited in the Indian Government accounts, &c.
m. Salary of a Superintendent of Prisons, and other increases to the Establishment, necessary for carrying out the new system of discipline at Singapore.

AUDIT OFFICE, SINGAPORE,
1st July, 1874.

of Expenditure 1872, and Expenditure 1873.

	Cause of Increase or Decrease.
a.	Purchase of the new Revenue Stamps caused an increase of about $1,500. Larger expenditure for Survey of Land and improving the system of Land Revenue collection.
b.	Sanctioned Grant for performance of Divine Service at Province Wellesley.
c.	This is a very variable service, and the increase does not call for any special explanation.
d.	Increased Grants sanctioned.
e.	Increase in Medicines and Instruments procured from England, about $3,000; the new Lock-Hospitals, $1,600; increase in General Hospital expenditure, from the greater numbers treated, $2,000; Pauper and Leper Hospitals taken over by the Government, $9,000.
f.	Increase in the expenditure on Clothing and Accoutrements, $12,600; Purchase of Boats, $1,000; Rations for Prisoners, $940; Coroners' Fees, $900. Decrease on Purchase of Arms, $1,000; also Stores supplied by the Indian Government in 1867, brought to account in 1872, $2,600. These are the principal variations.
g.	The increase is chiefly in the Rations and Accoutrements of the Native Warders, and various materials and implements for carrying out the system of hard labour.
h.	In consequence of the withdrawal of the Convicts in May and June, the ordinary expenditure, recoverable from the Governments of India and Ceylon, shows a reduction of $33,800; but there are payments to the amount of $18,267 for removing the Convicts to India and Ceylon, also recoverable. $50,499 debited by the Indian Government for Maintenance of Straits Convicts in India in their accounts up to the end of 1872, settled in 1873, against $4,230 only in their accounts to March 1870, settled in 1872.
i.	Chiefly due to the purchase of a new Steam-cutter, and the renewal of the Flagstaff at Malacca.
j.	The expenditure in 1872 was exceptional.
k.	Special repairs of the "Pluto" in 1873, for which the Legislative Council voted $5,000; and there are some small increases in other items. There is, on the other hand, a decrease of $4,300 in Ship's Stores.
l.	The difference arises chiefly from the irregularity with which the Imperial Share is claimed by the Post Office in London and the Burmah Mail Subsidy debited in the Indian accounts.
m.	Rent of quarters for the officers of the European Infantry Regiment at Penang and Malacca.
n.	This is the net result of a number of increases and decreases in the different departments.
o.	The increase is chiefly in Singapore, where the largest expenditure was on the Clyde Terrace Market, $31,000. Decrease of $11,000 at Penang, where no large work was done during the year; and increase of $14,000 at Malacca, caused by the erection of a new Pier and the improvement of the Prison.
p.	Decrease of $4,050 at Singapore, and $4,750 at Penang. Increase of $4,000 at Malacca.
q.	The only lands purchased in 1873 were some plots at Province Wellesley for extending Police Stations. The purchases in 1872 included the land at Campong Saigon, &c.
r.	The lower rate came into operation in the course of the year 1872. The annual difference between the new rate and the old is $36,260.
s.	The principal items in 1873 were—Reception of Royal Personages, $3,244; Chinese Riots, $493; Cholera Epidemic, $2,231; Mission to Siam, $1,330.

E. A. IRVING,
Acting Auditor-General.

OF ESTIMATED AND ACTUAL REVENUE, 1873.

CAUSE OF EXCESS OR DEFICIENCY.

a. Increase of $14,800 at Singapore, while at Penang there is a deficiency of $5,700. The estimate of this item must always be partially conjectural.

b. Deficiency of about $250 at Singapore and $1,800 at Penang. Less land sold on lease than was anticipated.

c. Deficiency of $4,435 in Singapore, and $972 in Penang. Over-estimated.

d. The excess is at Singapore, and is due partly to an under-estimate of the year's rents, and partly to the fact that a considerable portion of the rents for 1872 were paid in 1873.

e. The receipts on this account at Singapore showed an unexpected increase; at Penang the Revenue was under-estimated to the extent of $ 160.

f. Over-estimated. The receipts showed an increase on those of 1872.

g. There is a small deficiency at Singapore, but at Penang an excess of $850. This is due partly to an under-estimate, and partly to the more correct management of the Department.

h. The excess is chiefly at Penang, where there would seem to have been an increase in the registration of titles.

i. The estimate was considerably in excess of the actual receipts of previous years, but a large part of the deficiency arose from the circumstance that the two principal Markets in Singapore were under repair during some months of 1873, and their rents were therefore in abeyance.

j. While the estimates were framed at the old rates, the Opium and Spirit Farms at Penang were re-let at greatly increased rates from 1st April.

k. The Farms at Singapore and Malacca were let at increased rates. The Singapore receipts of 1873 also include portion of arrears due by the late Farmer, $1,826.33.

l. At Singapore there was a large and unlooked-for decrease in the letting of the Farm. The variations at Penang and Malacca were unimportant.

m. Excess of $2,621 at Singapore, $5,062 at Penang, and $665 at Malacca,—due, not to increase of revenue, but to the moderation of the estimates.

n. This is partly due to the operation of Orders in Council, by which certain Fees payable in cash were, from 1st May, made payable in stamps. Independently of this, however, the revenue from these sources was under-estimated at Penang, while at Singapore there was an unlooked-for increase.

o. The estimates of Courts of Requests Fees were put low, as it was thought likely that the business would diminish under the operation of the abolition of imprisonment for debt. This anticipation is so far from having been realized, that the Revenue from these fees has considerably increased, as the following Table will show:—

	Actual, 1872.	Estimated, 1873.	Actual, 1873.
Singapore ...	$6,549....	$2,000...	$8,095.75
Penang ...	7,800.25	2,000...	9,415.25
Malacca ...	1,647.25	1,500...	2.368.25
	$15,996.50	$5,500...	$19,879.25

This is partially counterbalanced by a deficiency in the Supreme Court Fees at Singapore and Penang, and the general result is only a slight increase over 1872.

OF ESTIMATED AND ACTUAL REVENUE, 1873.

Cause of Excess or Deficiency.
a. Excess in Singapore of about $4,400, and in Penang of $2,500, about one-half due to moderation in the estimates, and the remainder to actual increase in the Revenue which it was not deemed safe to calculate upon.
b. Collections credited in the Indian Government accounts between 1st April 1870 and 31st December 1872. The amount in the Estimates was the estimated receipts for one year.
c. In view of the reduction in the number of sailing-vessels trading here, it appears to have been considered unsafe to count on the shipping fees keeping up, but they have shewn an increase, hence the excess.
d. The number of passenger-steamers plying has increased to a greater extent than was counted upon.
e. The fees, being paid direct to the Surveyors, do not appear either on the Revenue or the Expenditure side.
f. At the time that the Estimates were framed, the new Ports Ordinance, introducing higher fees and more stringent rules, had not come into operation.
g. The same remarks apply here. The increased revenue which causes the excess is due chiefly to the full extension of the Registration of Fishing Stakes to Penang.
h. The Singapore receipts exceeded the Estimates by $16,000, and those of Penang by $4,000. There was an actual increase of Revenue over last year of $5,000,—due, no doubt, to increasing correspondence,—and the remainder of the excess must be attributed to moderation in the estimates.
i. This may be attributed to alterations in the rules respecting local postage.

OF ESTIMATED AND ACTUAL REVENUE, 1873.

Cause of Excess or Deficiency.
a. The Transmarine Convicts remained in the Colony rather longer than had been anticipated, hence the expenditure was greater, and consequently also the amounts here transferred to the credit of Revenue, which also include the cost of their passage to India and Ceylon, which was not taken into account when the Estimates were framed.
b. It was anticipated, when the Estimates were framed, that there would be very little, if any, Transmarine Convict Labour available, and it was omitted to estimate for the value of local Convict Labour, of which the amounts here brought to credit chiefly consist.
c. The revenue was over-estimated at Penang to the extent of $1,200, sufficient allowance not having been made for the diminution of the manufacture there, consequent on the new penal system.
d. Excess at Singapore $912, at Penang $942, at Malacca $433, due chiefly to the enforcement of fines against Public Works Contractors, and to increased receipts for the maintenance of Military Prisoners, not foreseen when the Estimates were framed.
e. Amount of two months' Contribution due from the Singapore Municipality. f. Under-estimated, especially at Singapore. g. It appears to have been apprehended that certain changes in rates would affect the receipts disadvantageously, whereas the Revenue showed unexpected expansion, especially at Penang.
h. The privilege of printing these returns at Singapore was sold at a diminished rate after the framing of the Estimates.

AUDIT OFFICE, SINGAPORE,

OF ESTIMATED AND ACTUAL REVENUE, 1873.

CAUSE OF EXCESS OR DEFICIENCY.

a. This is an item which it is difficult to estimate with accuracy. More lands were surveyed in Singapore and Penang than had been counted upon.

b. At Penang and Malacca the cash-balances of the Hospital Committees and the subscriptions collected were paid into the Treasury, the Government taking over the charge of the Establishments.

c. This is a variable item, the estimate of which can only be conjectural.

d. It was anticipated, when the Estimates were framed, that Interest would probably be allowed on our balances at Singapore, but the Oriental Bank Corporation declined to entertain the proposal. At Penang there was only one half-year's Interest received, the Interest for the second half-year not being credited till January 1874.

e. The estimate was for a year's Interest, but only one half-yearly payment was brought to credit during the year.

f. The remittances to England were larger than were calculated upon.

g. This is profit on Silver Coin supplied by the Crown Agents in 1872, and was expected to be brought to credit in that year.

h. The amount brought to credit represents the profit on all the Copper Coin received from India and England up to the end of 1872,—see Statement of Revenue in Arrear in the accounts for that year. The account of the Coin received in 1873 is not yet closed.

i. The Estimate was for a year's Interest on the advance of $7,000 to the Penang Municipality. The total receipts comprise also the following unforeseen items:—Interest from 23rd April to 31st December on loan of $45,000 to H.H. the Maharajah of Johore, $1,553.42; Interest for 6 months on loan of $70,000 to Singapore Municipality, $1,750; Interest on temporary advance made by the Crown Agents to the Mauritius Government, $1,387.77.

j. The excess arises from the refund by the War Office of Captain Speedy's salary while absent from Penang.

k. Receipts in Singapore, $8,536; Penang, $4,680; Malacca, $922. The estimate was for Singapore only, it not having been settled at that time when the Ordinance would be brought into operation at the other Settlements.

l. These receipts could not be foreseen.

Acting Auditor-General.

AUDIT OFFICE, SINGAPORE,
1*st July*, 1874.

of Estimated and Actual Expenditure—1873.

Cause of Excess or Saving.

a. Pension to Family of Bindarah of Quedah, with arrears, $1,323, unappropriated; Annuities to Landed Proprietors, Malacca, $700 in arrear; part of Captain Gottlieb's pension for the year not yet credited to India, $800; minor savings, $600. On the other hand, unforeseen Pensions granted in excess of provision, about $1,500.

b. A saving of $1,800 under Pay of Chainbearers, Trigonometrical Stations, &c., against an excess of $1,000 on Purchase of Stamps under the new Ordinance.

c. Savings on each item. The estimates under this head can only be conjectural, and payments are made only under the special authority of the Governor.

d. The excess is mainly attributable to the taking over by the Government of the Pauper and Leper Hospitals, especially in Penang and Malacca. Of the other items, considerable excesses appear in Medicines and Instruments, and General Hospitals; and savings in Lock Hospital and Lunatic Asylum.

e. Excess of $8,035 in Clothing and Accoutrements, and $4,478 in Purchase of Arms,—it having been anticipated that a considerable part of these charges would come into the expenditure of 1872.

f. Rations show an excess of $4,654, partly from its being found necessary to supply the native warders with rations, which had not been provided for. Miscellaneous Expenses show an excess of $3,800, caused by the unexpected expenses connected with introducing the new system of discipline at Singapore. On the other hand, the reduction of Manufactures caused a saving of nearly $2,000 on the vote for Materials; $2,000 for Carriage of Stone was unappropriated; and $1,350 was saved in Clothing for Prisoners and Warders.

g. The ordinary expenditure shows a saving of $3,000, but it was omitted to provide for the expense of removing the Convicts to India and Ceylon, costing $18,267, which, however, being recoverable, appears also as Revenue. The amount debited in the Indian Government accounts settled in 1873 (from 1st April 1870 to 31st December 1872) for Maintenance of Straits Convicts in India was $50,499.25, while the amount provided in the Estimates was only $10,000, being the estimated cost for one year.

h. $5,000 sanctioned by Council for special repairs to "Pluto;" $1,000 for new boiler for "Mata Mata;" excess on Fuel $4,700, caused by the enhanced price of coal. Savings on other items.

i. This is chiefly accounted for by the fact that the Imperial Share of Postage was $25,000 in arrear: while, on the other hand, the amount debited in the Indian Government accounts from 1st April 1870 to 31st December 1872, settled in 1873, for the subsidy to the Burmah Mail Steamers was $9,000 in excess of the provision for the year.

j. An excess of $500 in the Rent of Officers' Quarters, chiefly at Malacca;—rent of an office for the Colonial Engineer, and temporary Quarters for Prisons Officers, not provided for.

k. Excesses of $1,700 in cost of Stationery, of $700 (value of Labour) in Laying out Government Grounds, and of $2,000 in Miscellaneous, of which the particulars will be found in the "Expenditure Detailed." Savings of $800 (at Penang and Malacca) in Expenses of Fire Commissions, $1,300 in Grant to Volunteer Corps, $1,000 in Furnishing Government House, &c.

l. Arises from the inability of the Department to complete within the year all the work estimated for. Among the largest of these apparent Savings are—Supreme Court House, Singapore, $27,245; Improvement of Prison, Penang, $39,580; Improvements in Penang town, $33,535; New Market, Malacca, $5,000. On the other hand, certain works provided for in 1872 were not executed till 1873,—in particular, Clyde Terrace Market at Singapore, and the new Pier at Malacca.

m. A similar explanation will apply here. The apparent Saving is chiefly on the Province Wellesley works, the principal amount being for the Pry Bridge, $25,875.

n. The $3,000 for purchase of land near China Town Market was not appropriated in 1873. The amount paid, $450, was for small plots of land for improving Police Stations in Province Wellesley.

o. Payment of arrears of 1872, the lower rate having been commenced five days too soon.

p. The details will be found in "Expenditure Detailed"; also in the Schedule of Excesses, to which reference may be made for full particulars of all payments in excess of the provisions of the Estimates 1873.

COINS.

By Ordinance No. IV. of 1867, Sections 2, 3, and 4, it is enacted—

1. By Order of the Governor in Council under the above Section 2 of Ordinance No. 4 of 1867, dated the 10th January, 1874,—it was ordered "that the American Trade Dollar and the Japanese Dollars (or Yen) shall "in addition to the Dollars specified in the above mentioned Ordinance be a legal tender in payment, or on "account of, any engagements whatever within this Colony and its Dependencies."

2. The following particulars of the weight and fineness of Dollars Current in the East are taken from the Reports of Assays held at the Calcutta Mint on the 9th of October, and the 13th November, 1873. From and after the day aforesaid [the 1st of April, 1867], the Dollar issued from Her Majesty's Mint at Hongkong, the Silver Dollar of Spain, Mexico, Peru, and Bolivia, and any other Silver Dollar to be specified from time to time by the Governor in Council, shall be the only legal tender in payment, or on account of, any engagements whatever, except as is hereinafter mentioned, within this Colony and its Dependencies: provided that no Dollar shall be a legal tender unless it be of the same fineness and intrinsic value as the Hongkong Dollar, and be of not less than 415 grains Troy weight, and be not injured or defaced.

3. From and after the day aforesaid such silver coins as may be issued from Her Majesty's Mint, or any branch thereof, representing some fractional part of such Dollars as last hereinbefore provided, shall be legal tender in payment, or on account, of any engagements within this Colony and its Dependencies, for any sum not exceeding two Dollars.

4. From and after the day aforesaid, such copper or bronze coins as may now be current in this Colony and its Dependencies under Act No. 6 of 1847, of the Indian Legislature, as well as such copper or bronze coins as may be issued from Her Majesty's Mint, or any branch thereof, representing the cent or one-hundredth part, the half cent or two-hundredth part, and the quarter cent or four-hundredth part of the dollar, shall be legal tender in payment, or on account, of any engagements within this Colony and its Dependencies, for any sum not exceeding one Dollar.

5 The "Touch" of English "Standard" Silver is 92.5 per cent. Hence, taking the value of Standard Silver at 5 shillings per ounce, there results—

Intrinsic value of the Dollar, maximum $\left.\begin{matrix}\frac{90}{92.5}\end{matrix}\right\} \left.\begin{matrix}\frac{416}{480}\text{ x 5s.}\end{matrix}\right\}$ = 4. 2.594 s. d. say 4. 2½. s. d.

Intrinsic value of the Dollar, minimum $\left.\begin{matrix}\frac{89}{92.5}\end{matrix}\right\} \left.\begin{matrix}\frac{415}{480}\text{ x 5s.}\end{matrix}\right\}$ = 4. 1.912 say 4. 2.

But Mexican Dollars have generally a value in the London Market as coins higher than the mere value of the Standard Silver they contain. Occasionally they even fetch as high a price per ounce as Standard Silver. Taking 5 shillings per ounce as the maximum price, and 4s. 10d. as the minimum, there results—

Market value of the Dollar, maximum $\frac{416}{480}$ x 5s. = exactly 4s. 4d.

Market value of the Dollar, minimum $\frac{415}{480}$ x 4s. 10d. = 4. 2.017, say 4s. 2d.

The cost of Coining Dollars in London would be about $\frac{3}{8}$ths of a penny per ounce, so that, supposing Bar Silver to be at 5 shillings per ounce, they could be produced at the rate of $\frac{99.5}{100}$5s.+$\frac{3}{8}$d.=about 4/10$\frac{3}{4}$, or 1$\frac{1}{4}$d. below the price of bar silver.

The Government rate for the adjustment of Accounts between England and the Colony is 4s. 3d.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

Commercial Weight.

16 Tahils..	.. 1 Catty	= 1$\frac{1}{3}$ lbs.	avoirdupois.
100 Catties..	.. 1 Picul	= 133$\frac{1}{3}$ lbs.	„
3 Piculs..	.. 1 Bahra	= 400 lbs.	„
40 Piculs..	.. 1 Koyan	= 5333$\frac{1}{3}$ lbs.	„

Note.—The Catty of 1$\frac{1}{3}$ lbs. avoirdupois is known as the Chinese Catty. There is another weight, known as the Malay Catty, which was probably the original Standard, and which is still in partial use at Penang. The weight is that of 24 Spanish Dollars, or 9,984 grains. This gives 142.628 pounds as the weight of the Picul, and 5,705.143 pounds as the weight of the Koyan. The Koyan, considered as a measure of capacity, is divided into 800 Gantangs, and it is accordingly found that a Malacca Gantang of Rice weighs with a great degree of accuracy $\frac{5705 \cdot 143}{800}$=7.133 pounds. Taking the Gantang at the dimensions given to it at Singapore and Penang, no relation can be established between the Koyan of weight and the Koyan of capacity. Under the Dutch Government at Malacca the Picul was reckoned equal to 125 pounds Amsterdam, or 136.1825 pounds avoirdupois.

5 Koonchas..	.. 1 Koyan.	}
800 Gantangs..	.. 1 Koyan.
20Gantangs of Rice..	.. 1 Bag.

NOTE.—The capacity of the Chupah is not uniform at the three Settlements. The variations are shewn in the following Statement :—

	Contents in Cubic Inches.	Weight of Contents in Distilled Water. (Ounces Avoirdupois.)
Singapore Chupah	55.455	32
Penang Do.	67.912	39.188
Malacca Do.	64.466	37.200
English Quart	69.3185	40
French Litre	61.028	35.216

LONG MEASURE.

The Measure in use in the Settlements is the English yard (termed the Yella) with its divisions and multiples, but the Native terms as shewn in the following table are still in use :—

4 Plumpaps	1 Jungkal	=	9 inches.
2 Jungkals	1 Hasta	=	18 „
2 Hastas	1 Duppah	=	72 „
2 Duppahs	1 Jumbah	=	144 „
20 Jumbahs	1 Orlong	=	2880. „

NOTE.—The equivalents in inches as above stated are what are now attributed to these terms, but among the Malays the Jungkal had no more definite meaning than a span; the Hasta was the length of the fore-arm, and the Duppah the stretch of the two arms.

SQUARE MEASURE.

Land is measured by the English acre with its divisions, but the Native terms are still in use as shewn in the following table :—

	1 Square Jumbah	=	144	square feet.
400 Square Jumbahs =	1 „ Orlong	=	1⅓	acre (nearly).
	1 Lalong	=	2400	square feet.
24 Lalongs =	1 Square Orlong	=	1⅓	acre (nearly).

LIGHTHOUSES.

STRAITS SETTLEMENTS.

The Lights in the Settlements are six in number, viz :—

The Light Torch Vessel, anchored on the North Sands, 150 miles from Penang and 90 from Malacca, close to the 1½ fathom Bank. This vessel shows a white light, visible all round the horizon to a distance of 10 miles, and is intended to guide vessels clear of the shoal water in mid-channel. A Lighthouse is now in course of erection to replace this vessel.

Cape Rachado Lighthouse is placed on the high bluff of land, 30 miles to the North of Malacca, visible for 26 miles; its object is to light up the narrow part of the Straits in the neighbourhood of the Pyramid and Bambeck Shoals.

Malacca Light is a harbour light, visible for a distance of 13 miles.

Raffles' Lighthouse is placed on Coney Island, about 13 miles to the Southwest of Singapore, to mark the outer and South Channel round St. John's Island into Singapore Roads; it shows a bright white light, visible all round to a distance of 12 miles.

Singapore Light is a harbour light, lit with gas, visible for a distance of 15 miles.

The Horsburgh Lighthouse is built on the Pedra Branca Rock, about 36 miles to the East of Singapore, to mark the Eastern end of the Channel out of Singapore Straits; it is a revolving light, visible to a distance of 15 miles.

The following Table gives particulars of the cost, &c., of these lights :—

At Singapore the cultivation of Gambier and Pepper has much increased, but there are no accurate returns whatever, though they are being prepared.

At Penang, the Chinese are taking all over Province Wellesley to Sugar-cane cultivation. The plant is being grown on the Alma Estate.

The Tapioca Estates at Malacca are all introducing Steam Machinery.

PROGRESS OF ANY IMPROVEMENTS PREVIOUSLY REPORTED.

Nil.	The quarry is rented for £288 3*s.* 0*d.* per year. The value of the stones quarried cannot be ascertained but it is supposed that it is very little more than the rent paid to Government.		3,215	It is supposed that about 85,000 Tons of fish of all descriptions are taken yearly. There is no record kept of the various descriptions and quantity.	£52,500	There are no ships or large sized craft employed in fishing at this Settlement. The native Fishermen who never venture far out use only canoes and punts. The principal methods of fishing are by drag nets, and stationary catch nets, fastened to stakes in deep water. Fishing is carried on solely for the purpose of meeting the demand for local consumption. ESSENTIAL OILS. Perseverence Estate, Gaylang, has an area of 950 acres and is used for the cultivation of grasses and herbs producing Essential Oils for which it is peculiarly well suited, both as regards soil and climate. The Oils manufactured on this Estate command higher prices than any other which has been imported into the London Market. The expirement was first tried on a small scale, in January, 1865, by the present proprietor Mr. John Fisher, and is now producing at the rate of 3,276 ounces per day. The Oil from this Estate obtained the First prize at Nagpore in 1865, in competition with the Ceylon and Indian producers; it also obtained a Special Price at the French Exhibition in 1867. The Oil exhibited on this occasion was obtained from a shipment laying in the London Docks and forwarded to the exhibition under the Dock Company's Seal and not specially prepared for competition. The following are a list of the various Oils distilled on the above Estate:— Citronella, Lemon Grass, Patchouly, Nutmeg, Mace, Pepper and Omum, and the Essential Oil of Balsam Copaiva. Mint is now being planted.

OFFICE OF PRINCIPAL CIVIL MEDICAL OFFICER,
STRAITS SETTLEMENTS,
Singapore, 7th March, 1874.

SIR,—In submitting to Government the accompanying Annual Abstract of Meteorological Observations for the year 1873, and Comparative Annual Abstracts of Meteorological Observations, and of Rainfall for the years 1869 to 1873, inclusive, I have to point out, that the Mean Barometrical, and Thermometrical readings do not indicate any marked variation, either in the past year itself, or in comparing it with the four preceding years during which these observations have been recorded, and therefore do not call for any remark.

The mean average temperature of Singapore, I may inform those of the Community who have neither the time or taste to wade into figures may be safely quoted at 80° F.; the highest and lowest temperatures recorded during the year have been respectively 92°.5 and 68°.5 F.

However, on coming to the Rainfall, I have to show that since the year 1870, there has been a diminishing fall, more marked in the past and preceding years, and to this fact I would beg to draw the special notice of Government, as one of great and anxious interest to this Settlement; for, with an increasing population, and a decreasing water supply, something must be done, and I do not think we should, as hitherto, trust to our Rainfall entirely for our principal supply, but by searching for fresh springs and opening new wells, augment the sources we have, so as to place more water at the command of the public.

The Mean Total Rainfall for the past five years is here given—1869.	1870.	1871.	1872.	1873.

Yearly Rainfall—Inches	90.63	123.24	109.45	75.30	85.60 and though, as shewn here, there is a total increase in 1873 over 1872 of 10.30 inches; yet as per Table below, it will be noticed that during the driest and wettest months, there has been really a considerable decrease.

For the sake of convenience, I divide the year into three periods of four months each:—

1*st.*—From January to April during which the Rainfall is very variable and uncertain.

2*nd.*—From May to August which may be called the dry season, and is the period, as a rule, in which the Rainfall is least.

3*rd.*—From September to December, which may be called the wet season, and during which, as a rule, the Rainfall is greatest.

	1869.	1870.	1871.	1872.	1873.
January ..	3.93	18.25	11.05	2.37	7.16
February ..	3.23	7.80	7.69	7.72	9.57

May ..	9.19	5.01	3.96	5.12	5.50

September ..	3.13	12.62	8.97	10.79	3.00
October ..	5.11	9.99	12.36	5.74	7.93

Total of the year.	90.63	123.24	109.45	75.30	85.60

From this Table it will be seen that in the first or variable period, the fall of rain in successive years, has been extremely fluctuating, and from which no deductions can be drawn; but in the second or dry period, there has been a very marked decrease in the amount of Rainfall.

In the third or wet period, the decrease appears only since 1870, since which time it has been getting less and less every year.

The great difference of Rainfall during the dry and wet periods in 1873, as compared with the similar periods of 1870 will be apparent at a glance.

It is noteworthy that corresponding with the dry season in 1872, we had an epidemic of Small-pox breaking out at its expiration (viz., August), and again, in July last year, we had an epidemic of Cholera, lasting till the month of September, thus showing how, to a great extent, the health of Singapore is dependent on its Rainfall.

The only cause that appears to me to exist, or have existed, to which this great decrease of Rainfall may be attributed, is the extensive clearing of forest on the mainland of Johore contiguous to this island, which has been effected principally during the period under notice; and I would suggest, that the conservancy of portions of forest may be taken into the consideration of Government.

In conclusion, I would beg to tender my thanks to Captain Caldbeck, J. Fisher, Esquire, and Mr. A. Knight, for having helped me in recording the Rainfall at their different stations.

I am, &c.,

The Hon'ble the Colonial Secretary,
Straits Settlements.

ADDENDA

1873.

Report by Lieutenant-Governor of Penang on that Settlement.

REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE.

1. The Returns shew an apparent increase of revenue over that of 1872 of $10,368.18, but there was a real increase in the receipts of $31,282.50. This is accounted for by the Revenue Return of 1872 being swelled by the transfer to it of the Police Superannuation Fund amounting to $20,914.32.

2. As compared with the returns of year 1868, the first after that of the Transfer of the Settlement to the Colonial Government, the increase is $69,063.28.

3. The following table exhibits the Comparative Revenue of the Settlement for the three years 1868, 1872, 1873.

5 From the above it will be seen that the re-letting of the Farms on the 1st April caused an increase to the Revenue of the year of $35,066.88.

6. The rates at which the Farms were re-let for a term of 3 years and nine months as compared with the former rates are as follow :—

increasing the Revenue by $52,600.32 per annum.

7. A decrease of $3,305 appears in the revenue from Stamps. This may in a great measure be attributed to the blockade of the Achinese ports by the Dutch.

8. The receipts from Port and Harbour dues shew an increase of about one-third over those of the year 1872, and to the extent of nearly two and a half times those of the year 1868.

9. The removal of the Transmarine Convicts on 1st April reduced the amount of reimbursements on account of the Public Works and Convict Department. The item under this head will not in future appear in the Annual Estimates.

10. The expenditure of the year shews a decrease of $6,700.93 as compared with 1872. The following is a detailed Statement of it for the years 1868, 1872, 1873.

11. The increase under the head of Salaries includes the Salaries of Messengers, Sweepers, and Punkah-Pullers for the different Departments; and of Sub. Warders for the Gaol, to replace the Transmarine Convicts by whom all these duties were performed up to 1st April, when the whole of the Convicts were removed.

12. It also includes the cost of some addition to the Police; of an extra Clerk in the Treasury; of the new staffs for the Registration Department, and for the Medical Department, in connection with the Lock Hospital; of an addition to the Salary of the Chief Clerk in the Lieutenant-Governor's Office, and to the Salaries of the Clerks in the Post Office.

13. The increase under the head of Ecclesiastical is due to a grant to a Presbyterian Minister.

14. The item of rent is increased by the amount paid for the hire of houses for the temporary accommodation of European Military Officers for whom quarters are about to be erected.

LOCAL REVENUE.

15. The only local revenue, that of the Municipality, has rapidly increased since the year of the Transfer. The following table shews the increase in the revenue as well as in the expenditure from the year 1867.

	Revenue.	Expenditure
1867	$66,344.32	$66,135.73
1868	77,000.08	78,973.67

1872	101,454.86	91,621.37
1873	112,125.52	104,410.48

16. By comparing the Revenue above with that of the year 1861, viz., $57,983, the relative progressive prosperity of the Settlement for the six years previous and the six years subsequent the year of the Transfer, will be perceptible.

17. The difference between the receipts of 1867 and those of 1873 is shewn in detail below.

	1867.		1873.

18. Out of the Revenue of the year the sum of $40,164 was contributed to Government on account of the cost of the Police, thus leaving a balance of only $71,961.52 available for Municipal purposes.

The contribution on behalf of the Police in 1867 was only $22,768.29.

	Houses in Town P. W. Island.	Houses in Country P. W. Island.	Houses Province Wellesley	Total	Amount of Assessment.
19. In 1867 there were	4,019	1,617	5,448	11,084	$24,546	„
„ 1872 „	4,210	2,419	7,181	13,810	32,452	25
„ 1873 (after the new assessment)	4,360	2,419	7,381	14,160	38,575	„

20. The increase by the new assessment made on lands during the year amounted to $997.73, which, together with $6,123.20 the increase by the re-assessment on Houses as shewn above, will give an increase to the Municipal revenue of 1874 of $7,120.93.

21. The principal works executed by the Municipal Commissioners were the opening and forming of a new Street 1,323 feet in length, in continuation of Stewart's Lane between Love Lane and Penang Road, and crossing Leith Street; of a new street 1,561 feet in length from Carnarvon Street,—the street that was formerly Lower Pitt Street, and which is now extended as far as Chulia Road, to nearly opposite the Chow Rasta Gaol in Penang Road; of a new road in extension of Argyle Street (formerly Penang Lane) across the Prangin Ditch to the cross road from Hutton Lane to Northam Road, a length of 1,840 feet; of a new road 218 feet in length in extension of Hutton Lane, and connecting it with the recently finished road which joins the Northam and Burmah Roads; also of a new road commencing nearly opposite the 2nd mile stone in the MacAlister Road, and branching in two directions, towards the right by Brown's Monument to the Penang road at the village of Dattu Kramat, and towards the left to the bridge on the Penang road near Richmond House; being together with its two branches a length of 3,287 feet. The cost of land and of compensation for opening these Streets and Roads was $5,977.66.

22. The Village of Ayer Etam was drained and the road through it widened, raised and macadamized; and many streets and roads were cleared of obstructions, widened and otherwise improved. The outlay on the maintenance of roads and bridges amounted to $18,378.29.

23. The Public Baths in George Town have been greatly availed of by the native population as is observable from the rent obtained for them.

24. The increase and other improvements to the Market have met with a more than corresponding increase in the rent which is now double what it was in 1867.

25. The Water Works have, after deducting the annual cost of upkeep, proved highly remunerative. This enabled the Commissioners to resolve upon an extension of these works without seeking a further loan on account of them.

26. The Commissioners have authorized the Government to take a lead from their main at the village of Pulo Tikus to supply water to the troops at the Infantry Lines, as well as to the Civil Hospital and the Gaol at Datu Kramat.

27. It is a question whether with the increasing demand for water in Town, this may not necessitate a larger main than the present one as far as the village of Pulo Tikus. The sum of $1,687.76 was expended on the Water Works during the year.

28. The Commissioners reduced the Municipal Debt, which now stands at $29,200 by the sum of $7,000 by paying off two bonds bearing interest at 7 and 9 per cent.

29. The remaining debt was incurred entirely on account of the Water Works which during the year yielded a return of $12,955. This sum includes the rent $3,321 received for the three public baths, the outlay on the upkeep of which was only $27.

PUBLIC WORKS.

30. The principal buildings erected during the year were Police Stations at Byan Lepas, Permatang Pow, Nebong Tabal, Teluk Ayer Tawar and Pulo Kra. The last was found necessary towards the end of the year, in order to check the piracies which were being constantly committed between Pulo Kra and the Krean River.

31. New Wards for 120 Patients at the Pauper Asylum were also constructed, and some important alterations and improvements were made to the General and Leper Hospitals.

32. Other works to the extent of about one-third of the whole amount estimated for in the Budget, were obliged, on account of the insufficient strength of the Department to be left uncommenced.

33. The expenditure on Military Works was chiefly for minor improvements for the comfort of the European Soldiers.

34. Neither of the works for supplying water to the Barracks at the Infantry Lines, or to Fort Cornwallis were commenced, but they are again provided for in the Estimates for 1874.

35. The inadequacy of Supervision in the Department, coupled with the Cattle Disease, which broke out at the latter end of the year, and for a time put a stop to all cartage, operated to reduce the work performed on the roads to one-half of what was estimated for in the Budget for the year.

36. The works actually completed in the Road Department were,

Raising, re-forming and widening ...	... 2¼ miles.
Metalling	... 4¼ „

37. Constructing two Bridges 80 feet span, one over the Tumboos canal and the other over the river at Kubang Semang; and 8 other bridges averaging 12 feet span.

38. The following were the works in the road Department left incomplete. Metalling the roads from Penaga to Butterworth, from Butterworth to Bagan Ajam, and from Penaga towards Toh Glam. Re-making the 2nd class road from Penaga to Bagan Ajam viâ Teluk Ayer Tawar and Teluk Remis. Raising, widening and metalling the approaches to Juru Bridge. The erection of the Pry Bridge and of six small timber bridges. The opening up of the new road into the new territory.

39. The whole of the road work, with the exception of that on the road up the Government Hill, was performed in Province Wellesley; the roads in the island with that exception being in charge of the Municipality.

40. The following table shews the comparative expenditure on Public Works from 1870 to 1873.

SURVEY BRANCH.

41. A considerable increase of work over that of the year 1872 is shewn under this head. 1,600 acres of Government allotments and 685 acres of private lands were surveyed; 1,700 acres were surveyed for the approaches to the new Pry Bridge; and six miles of road leading into the new Territory, obtained under the late treaty with Siam, were traced.

EDUCATION.

42. The number of Pupils on the Register of the Free School was increased, from 215 in 1853, and 372 in 1872, to 402. Of that number the average attendance was 293.

43. The School accommodation having been found insufficient to meet the increased and as it was hoped, the still increasing number, the Committee decided on extending the room at the main entrance to the building by enclosing the portico and adding the space so enclosed, so as to form a large room for the 1st class, and also to build an additional school-room on the spare ground towards the road to correspond in every way with the two blocks forming the present wings of the building. These additions are being carried out under a contract for $3,520. The Government grant, which during the year was increased from $1,200 to $2,400 per annum will assist the Committee in meeting this expenditure.

44. One of the Eurasian Masters was dismissed for misconduct, and a third trained master was sent for to England to replace him. As most of the pupils are Chinese, another master is being sought for in China as the Committee consider it desirable to have a trained Chinese Master to explain in their own language to the boys, especially those of the junior class the meaning of the words they meet with in their English Lesson Books.

45. The Government Grant-in-aid to the Christian Brother's school was increased from $900 to $1,200 per annum. The number of boys attending this school was increased by five, but the average attendance by only one.

46. A progressive movement was made in connexion with Vernacular Education—an additional native Visiting Teacher was appointed for Prince of Wales' Island and a Government Officer, Mr. Kynnersley, a passed Cadet, was also appointed to act as Honorary Visitor of schools in order that the Visiting Teachers might have some one to whom they would be immediately responsible to supervise and assist them; and also that there might be some educated European official to visit the schools in the absence of the Inspector of Schools who resides at Singapore.

47. The great hindrance hitherto to the progress of Vernacular Education has been the want of proper supervision.

50. On the whole the Imports which amounted to $14,574,250 shewed a decrease of $2,732,401.

51. The Imports from the United Kingdom which amounted to $1,366,785 shewed a decrease of only $26,522; those from the British Colonies which amounted to $6,022,237 shewed a decrease of $1,237,115 which is thus accounted for:—

	Decrease.	Increase.
British Burmah	$578,759	...

52. From Foreign Countries the Imports shewed a decrease of $1,468,764, the greatest decrease being $1,897,811 the value of the Imports from the Malayan Peninsula. The decrease from China was $151,252, and from Italy $26,750.

53. The increase in the Imports took place principally in those from Siam and Sumatra. This is represented by the following values respectively, viz: $326,915 and $277,093.

54. The following are the items of Export which exhibit a considerable increase:—

Areca Nut	$12,801

55. Of this increase $286,558 are attributable to the trade with Hongkong, $28,609 to that with French India, and $183,480 to that with Siam.

56. The principal decrease in the Exports took place under the following heads:—

57. Of this decrease $1,009,741 are accounted for in the Exports to the United Kingdom, $67,046 to British Burmah, $150,957 to British India, $551,983 to Singapore and Malacca, $58,556 to America, $56,556 to China, $74,355 to France, $867,201 to the Malayan Peninsula and $321,911 to Sumatra.

58. The total value of the Exports was $17,242,311, shewing a decrease as compared with 1872 of $2,666,330, and making the total reduction in the Imports and Exports $5,398,731.

59. This reduction may be mainly attributed to the disturbed condition of the Native State of Perak and to the war carried on by the Dutch in Achin.

63. The decrease in Imports and Exports consequent on the war with Achin is shewn as follows:—

	Imports.	Exports.
1872...	$2,249,960	$2,429,538
1873...	1,572,844	1,760,332
Decrease ...	$677,116	$669,206

making a total decrease of Imports and Exports of $1,346,322.

64. The reduction in the quantity of Tin imported from the Malayan Peninsula consequent on the disturbances in Perak was 20,761 piculs.

65. The trade with Delli in Sumatra is greatly extending; the Imports from that place having been $186,615 in excess of those of 1872.

66. The trade with Tongkah in the Island of Junk Ceylon has also greatly increased, the Imports and Exports having been in 1872.	Imports $1,473,841	Exports $1,482,673

„ 1873.	2,149,388	1,578,398

SHIPPING.

67. The increased number of steamers which entered the port and of which the aggregate tonnage amounted to 220,679 produced a rise of $1,181.20 in the amount collected for Light Dues, of $323.79 in the receipts of the Shipping Office, and of $123.75 for passenger licenses.

68. 990 vessels of an aggregate tonnage of 543,458 entered, and 942 vessels of an aggregate tonnage of 603,891 cleared from the Port.

69. Of these numbers there were 632 Steamers with a tonnage of 468,310 inwards; and 627 steamers with a tonnage of 543,870 outwards.

70. This is an increase inwards of 47 vessels, and of tonnage to the extent of 50,681; and outwards a decrease of 15 vessels, but an increase of 120,199 in the amount of tonnage.

71. Inwards the increase comprised 150 steamers and 1 ship, and the decrease 48 schooners, 20 brigs and 36 barques; outwards there was an increase of 146 steamers, but a decrease of 77 schooners, 35 brigs, 45 barques and 4 ships.

72. The following Table shews the number and tonnage of Native Craft (Junks, Topes, Schooches and Prows) which entered and cleared as compared with that of 1872.

73. A considerable increase of commercial intercourse is here shewn with Singapore, Malacca, and Siam, and the large decrease that was to be anticipated with the Malayan Peninsula and Sumatra, on account of the disturbed state of Perak and Achin, is also clearly perceptible.

LAND.

74. The work of the Land Office as compared with 1872 is shewn in the following Return:—

75. A considerable falling off is manifest in the sale of Land. This is attributable to an unavoidable delay in preparing about 200 Grants and Leases. The Revenue from these Grants and Leases will however appear to the credit of the Revenue of 1874.

76. Under all other headings an increase is apparent and a very appreciable one is observable under that of Quit Rent.

77. The augmentation under this head is due in part to an increase in the number of permits to clear land for which rent in advance was paid, but more to the exertions of the Head of the Department Mr. Swettenham, one of the passed Cadets, who was appointed Collector of Land Revenue at the beginning of the year. This Gentleman commenced a system of District Collections which proved very successful, and which, if continued, is likely to be productive of very satisfactory results.

78. Land has for some time been in increasing demand by the Chinese, and the great number of sales which took place considerably augmented the collections on account of Registration fees.

79. The Rent Rolls are about to be carefully examined and corrected, and this, and a new and more accurate survey of many of the allotments, will no doubt be conducive to a larger revenue.

80. The value of land has greatly augmented, and lately,—especially in and near the town,—very high prices have been obtained for it, by private owners.

HOSPITALS.

81. The health of the Settlement was very satisfactory, and its entire freedom from epidemic disease, notwithstanding that Cholera was prevalent in Singapore, Malacca, Siam, Rangoon and Achin, all places in its immediate neighbourhood, is very remarkable. Not a single case of small-pox came under the observation of the Medical Officers during the twelve months.

82. The number of Europeans admitted into the General Hospital was 65, being in excess of the admissions in 1872, by 52.—Of the number admitted 31 were Dutch Seamen belonging to the Achin Blockading Squadron, 8 of whom were suffering from a disease, which appears to be local, named Beriberi. This disease, I am informed, affects the patient in a manner somewhat similar to Scurvy.

83. The number of deaths which occurred among the Europeans was only two, one of which was that of a Sailor of H. M. S. Thalia, who was dangerously wounded by a musket ball in the attack on the stockades at Laroot, and the other a Seaman of the Dutch Blockading Squadron from Strumous Deathesis.

84. Considerable improvements were made in the ventilation of the wards for Native patients in the Hospital.

85. The number of Natives admitted was 381, being a decrease as compared with 1872 of 49. The death rate was below that of the previous year, being 6·44 per cent. 25 deaths having occurred.

86. In the Hospital at the Central Prison 72 Transmarine Convicts as against 177 for the previous year were treated. This falling off is due to the removal of the Convicts in the early part of the year.

87. 33 European and 502 Native House of Correction Prisoners were treated, being a considerable increase over the number treated last year. The death rate among the natives was however less, the percentage being 2.58 as against 3.43 for 1872.

88. Of the Europeans, who were principally soldiers none either died or suffered from any severe disease.

89. There was a considerable number of cases of intermittent fever consequent on the heavy rainfall.

90. 53 Prisoners awaiting trial, and debtors, were also treated in this Hospital, but no deaths occurred among them.

91. The Contagious Diseases Ordinance was brought into operation at the commencement of the year, and 38 Patients were admitted into the Lock Hospital during the course of it. Of these 33 were discharged cured, 1 died and 4 were remaining at the end of the year. Many of these cases owing to previous neglect were very bad ones. The average period of treatment of those cured was 59 days.

92. In Butterworth Hospital, Province Wellesley, there was a large increase in the number treated; this was chiefly due to a number of coolies sent in from the Malakoff Estate during the months of November and December. Out of 108 then sent to Hospital from this Estate 29 died. Marks of ill-treatment were observable on the bodies of many of these Coolies and the Proprietor of the Estate, his European Manager, and some of the Native Overseers, were in consequence brought to trial and punished with imprisonment.

93. Vaccination did not progress so satisfactorily as could have been desired. This may be partly attributed to the strong prejudice against it of the Malay population, who are Musulmans, and partly to the persons employed as Vaccinators having proved untrustworthy. It is to be hoped, and I think may fairly be anticipated, that the additional Apothecaries about to be appointed for duty in Province Wellesley, being better qualified, will be more successful in enforcing the provisions of this Ordinance.

GAOLS.

94. The removal of the Transmarine Convicts in the early part of the year enabled the whole of the local prisoners to be accommodated in the Chowrasta Gaol, and the Civil Prison to be vacated in order to convert it with considerable additions and alterations into the future Civil and Criminal Prison of the Settlement.

95. The removal of the Transmarine Convicts did away with the old system of Transmarine Convict Warders for whom free men were substituted.

96. The Prison system underwent a thorough reorganization.

97. An entire separation took place between the Prison and the Public Works Departments; the Prisoners were separated into classes and subjected to more rigorous discipline and the dietary scale was remodelled.

98. The conduct of the new Warders was on the whole satisfactory.

99. One Prisoner was guilty of stabbing a European Warder, but generally the conduct of the Prisoners was good.

100. The Prisoners were principally employed at stone breaking, pounding cocoanut husk, and shot drill. The lighter work of rattan chair and mat making, &c., having been almost entirely discontinued.

101. Three persons escaped, one of whom was recaptured, and three attempts at escape were made, but were frustrated by the vigilance of the night warders.

102. The following shews the number of Prisoners in Gaol during the year, and how they were disposed of:

CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS.

106. The Pauper and Leper Asylums which were formerly under the direction of an independent Committee, were in February taken under the charge of the Government, aided by a Committee of Management.

107. An addition of three wards was made to the Pauper Asylum, and part of an old ill-ventilated ward used by the blind was removed and the remaining part converted into a workshop for their use. The present buildings afford accommodation for 166 paupers with an allowance of 1,000 cubic feet for each.

108. The number of persons treated since 14th February was 666,—155 were in the Asylum on that date and 511 were afterwards admitted.

109. Of the total number, 171 died, giving a death rate of 25.67 per cent. This would at first sight appear to be a very high rate, but many of the persons admitted were in a hopeless condition from Chronic or incurable disease or starvation, when picked up and sent in by the Police.

110. The principal causes of death were as follows:—

51. Phagedenic Ulcers in most cases combined with Dysentry.
31. Ulcers.
15. Anasarca from Organic disease of liver.
15. Alnus Soluta.
11. Dysentry.
8. Imbecillitas.
6. Gangrene of lower extremities.
5. Chronic Rheumatism.
4. Phthisis.
3. Anemia.
3 Abscessus.
2. Second Syphilis.
2. Tumour Malignant.
1. Hemoptysis.
1. Bubo.
1. Acute Rheumatism.
1. Primary Syphilis.
1. Apoplexy.
2. Paralysis.
1. Opacity of Cornea and general debility.

111. The Laroot disturbances considerably augmented the number of paupers in the Settlement.

112. The Leper Hospital on the Island of Pulo Jerajah underwent alterations for the improvement of the ventilation.

113. The old fixed guard benches were removed and were replaced by moveable cots. This change enabled the wards to be more conveniently and thoroughly cleaned, and a better current of air to circulate through them, and at the same time objectionable receptacles for dirt and rubbish were got rid of.

114. Forty-two Lepers were treated; out of which number four died, 38 remaining at the end of the year.

There was little other sickness among the inmates of the Asylum.

POST OFFICE.

115. The business as well as the Revenue of the Post Office increased considerably during the year, whilst a decrease took place in the expenditure.

116. The following tables exhibit the number of letters, newspapers, &c., received and despatched as well as the revenue and expenditure of the Department as compared with the year 1872.

117. A Local Postal Service was established between the General Post Office in Prince of Wales' Island, and Butterworth, and Bukit Tamboon in Province Wellesley; the extent to which this was availed of will be seen in the foregoing table. It is proposed to extend this local Service to other places in Province Wellesley.

118. The demand for Money Orders greatly increased; the convenience of this System of payment having apparently become recognized, especially for the purpose of making small remittances to the United Kingdom.

119. The following are the transactions in the Money Order Branch for the years 1872 and 1873.

JUDICIAL.

120. In the Supreme Court the number of Plea side cases filed, the number tried, and the amounts involved, considerably increased.

121. The Equity cases although they display an increase in number, exhibit a decrease to the extent of about one half in the amounts involved.

122. The amount of the Ecclesiastical business of the Court remained about the same as in the previous year, but a very sensible decrease took place in the amount sworn to as the value of Estates.

123. In the criminal business of the Court there was a decrease which is attributed to the extended jurisdiction vested in the Magistrates under the Penal Code.

124. There were 31 persons tried before the Supreme Court for culpable Homicide of whom 16 were acquitted and 15 sentenced to death; 23 persons were convicted of grievous Hurt, 1 of unnatural offence; 21 of other offences against the person, 23 of offences against property, and 28 of other offences. In all 111 persons were convicted out of 215 brought before the Court.

125. 58 persons were acquitted, 81 sentenced to Rigorous Imprisonment and 10 to Simple Imprisonment. Against 16 persons the cases were ignored by the Grand Jury, against 28 a nolle prosequi was entered, and the cases against 2 were postponed.

126. In the Police Magistrates' Courts there were disposed of:—

	1873.	1872.	1871.
In P. W. Island.
Police Cases	4,725	4,138	2,443

Police Cases	1,574	1,781	989
Summons Cases	648	801	599
Total.....	2,222	2,582	1,588

127. A decrease appears in the number of cases in Prince of Wales' Island committed by the Magistrate for trial in the Supreme Court. These cases in 1873 amounted to 51, in 1872 to 60 and in 1871 to 61.

128. In Province Wellesley there were 34 such cases in 1873, 36 in 1872, and 33 in 1871.
129. The number of persons committed to prison by the Magistrate was :—

	1873.	1872.
In P. W. Island.
In pursuance of Sentence	668	338
„ default of Fine	239	318

	1873.	1872.
In Province Wellesley.
In pursuance of Sentence	265	398
„ default of Fine	115	94
Total.....	380	492

130. The business of the Magistrate's Court at Butterworth in Province Wellesley diminished, while that of the two district Courts at Bukit Tamboon and the more recently established one at Penaga, increased. The proportion of cases at each of these Courts is here shewn :—

	Police casess.	Summons cases.	Total.
Butterworth ..	664	342	1,006
Penaga ..	239	143	382
Bukit Tamboon	671	163	834

131. The higher number of cases at Bukit Tamboon is accounted for by the number of cases of "Master and cooly," which were heard before that court consequent on the number of Sugar Estates in the neighbourhood.
132. There was an increase in the number of cases of " Employer against labourer" for breach of contract in Province Wellesley.
In 1871 there were 106 such cases.
„ 1872 „ „ 124 „
„ 1873 „ „ 179 „

133. The native (Chinese, Tamil and Malay) as well as the European employers avail themselves of Indian Act XIII. of 1859 to enforce their labor contracts.
134. There were fewer cases in Province Wellesley against the Excise Ordinance. This is understood to be due to some shares of the Opium Farm having been held by some of the contraband dealers of former years.
135. The increase in the number of each class of suits brought before the Court of Requests, Prince of Wales' Island, will be seen by the following table :—

	Under $10.	Under $20.	Under $30.	Under $50.	Total.
1873 ...	906	440	215	314	1,875
1872 ...	762	372	199	192	1,525

136. In Province Wellesley the number of suits heard, which amounted to 665 was distributed between the three Courts as follows :—

A. E. H. ANSON,
Lieutenant-Governor.

Penang, 26th June, 1874.

No. 318.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR'S OFFICE,
Malacca, 15th June, 1874.

SIR,—I have the honor to forward my report on the Blue Book for this Settlement for 1873.

REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE.

Revenue.

The total revenue collected from all sources, in 1873, amounted to $135,764, being a decrease on that for 1872 of $11,735; this is chiefly accounted for by the stoppage of all sales or leasing of Land on account of increased rates which no one would accept. New rules have since been framed, which, when put into force, will again encourage leasing, and bring in an increased revenue. At present, in round numbers, not one-third of the Settlement is under cultivation, and I still think, and have always advocated, that as the total area is 368,940 acres it is the best plan to encourage cultivation by low rates until at least half is cultivated.

Expenditure.

The total expenditure incurred in 1873 was $152,394, being an increase on that for 1872 of $22,034; this is accounted for by an increased expenditure on the Public Works Department of $22,551, which is partly caused by the withdrawal of the Transmarine Convicts who formerly did much of this work. Their removal is a great loss to this Settlement, as free labor is scarce, very dear, and also inferior in quality to that of the trained Convicts.

IMPORTS AND EXPORTS.

Imports.

Total Imports in 1873 amounted to $2,338,465, being a decrease on those for 1872 of $589,720; this decrease was owing to the stoppage of Malacca trade on the Linghie River, Klang, &c., by the disturbances between Sunghy Ujong, Rambow, and other States of the Malay Peninsula. Lately all stockades have been removed or destroyed on the Linghie River, and it is again open and free to all traders. The trade is in tin, opium, and rice.

Exports.

The total Exports for 1873 amounted to $1,816,745, being a decrease on that for 1872 of $1,903,822; this great difference is chiefly owing to the Blockade of the Linghie River and the disturbances at Salangor and Klang. The decrease was on tin, opium, and specie.

EDUCATION.

There has been no important alteration in the Eurasian Schools, but there has been a great improvement in the teaching, and increase in the number of the Vernacular Schools during 1873. Formerly nothing but repeating the Koran was taught; now elementary books in Reading, Writing, and Arithmetic, have been introduced by Government; and although it is too soon to give any Statistical Reports, still there is every hope of great improvement. The number of Schools has been, and will be increased as they become necessary. The Malays are slow to send their children to Schools, still education is gaining ground all through the Settlement.

HOSPITALS.

These have been taken over by Government; formerly they were under the management of a Committee; the Pauper and Leper Hospitals are now supported jointly by Government and private subscriptions. Arrangements are being made for a General Hospital, which is very much required. A Return is attached, prepared by the Acting Colonial Surgeon, shewing a comparative statement for the years 1872 and 1873. The remarks "no General Hospital building, neither is there a Police Hospital," will not apply to 1874, as these buildings are now being provided for.

Acting Colonial Surgeon.

PRISONS.

The present Prison is not satisfactory, but as the building hitherto known as Her Majesty's Jail, and used for civil cases, has been altered to meet the requirements of a Criminal Prison as well, I will be able to give a more satisfactory report next year.

GENERAL.

1873 has been a bad year for the Settlement, owing to the disturbances in the neighbouring States. Those principally affecting Malacca, are Sunghy Ujong, Rambow, and Salangor. The stoppage of trade with these States has caused serious loss to the Settlement. Our Frontier River on the North west having been opened, and the Stockades destroyed by the boats of H. M. Ships "Charybdis" and "Avon," accompanied by His Excellency the Governor in the Colonial Steamer "Pluto," the trade has since considerably revived. On the day following the opening of the river, tin, to the value of $48,000, came down the river to Malacca.

The Gold mine opened at Chindrass, 12 miles outside of our Frontier, promises to succeed, and will probably much benefit this Settlement. Tapioca and Paddy cultivation are both increasing, and I have great hopes that the Revenue of 1874 will be sufficient to meet the expenditure.

I am Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

EDWARD W. SHAW,
Lieutenant-Governor.

To the Hon'ble
The Colonial Secretary,
Singapore.

COLONIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
Singapore, 21st October, 1874.

SIR.

IN accordance with the instructions contained in your letter No. 5089, dated 12th instant, I have the honour to forward a Report on the General Condition of the Chinese in the Straits Settlements, during the year 1873.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) W. A. PICKERING,
Chinese Interpreter,
Straits Settlements.

To the Honourable
the Colonial Secretary,
Straits Settlements.

Report on the state of the Chinese Community of the Straits Settlements, for the year 1873.

1. During the year 1873, a marked improvement took place in the behaviour of the Chinese population of this Colony, and there has been no recurrence of serious quarrels between rival Secret Societies, which caused so much trouble last year.

2. With regard to Singapore, the improvement is I think owing to the fact, that the Kongsies have all been registered under Section 3 of Ordinance XIX. of 1869, which enables the Police to have a constant supervision and control over their movements. "The Peace Preservation Act" being in force in Singapore, assists very much in keeping the lawless classes under subjection.

3. At Penang, during the month of August, the disturbances in Laroot caused great uneasiness, as it was feared that the quarrel might extend to that Settlement, both parties of combatants having many adherents, in Penang and Province Wellesley. An attack was made on a house belonging to the Mantri of Laroot, in which a Constable was killed; but owing to the precautions taken by the Superintendent of Police no further attempt to disturb the peace was made.

4. Malacca having a smaller proportion of newly arrived Immigrants (bad characters amongst the Chinese population) has always been comparatively free from disturbances, and this year has been no exception to the rule.

5. I am of opinion however, that if the measures already in force at Singapore, could be extended to the other Settlements, a great and permanent benefit would be secured; and I am sure these measures would meet with the approbation of the respectable portion of the Chinese Community, who wish that the Government would even go further, and abolish Secret Societies throughout the Straits Settlements.

6. The Chinese generally are now made better acquainted with the Government they dwell under, as every new Rule or Ordinance is fully explained to them by means of Placards widely distributed in their own language. Our relations with this largely increasing portion of the population would be further improved, if the services of respectable Europeans to act as Interpreters in our Courts, could be secured.

7. The trade of the Colony having for some time suffered great injury from the dreadful state of anarchy into which some of the neighbouring Malay States had fallen, the whole Chinese Mercantile Community, presented a Petition on the subject, to the late Governor Sir H. Ord, which they begged him to forward for the consideration of the Secretary of State. If the results expected from the Petition be attained, and the evils mentioned therein be put a stop to, then there is every prospect that, not only their late losses will be re-couped, but that the Chinese of these Settlements will have a prosperous future, and a wide field for the exercise of their well-known energy and industry.

W. A. PICKERING,
Chinese Interpreter,
Straits Settlements.

REPORT ON LEGISLATION, 1873.

The Session of the Legislative Council opened on the 11th March and closed on the 31st October. During that period thirty meetings were held, each sitting occupying about four hours.

Fourteen measures were introduced, of which ten were passed into law, viz :—

Ordinance	I.	Foreign Seamen Jurisdiction.
„	II.	Summary Jurisdiction Amendment (Dogs).
„	III.	Contagious Diseases Amendment.
„	IV.	Governor's Salaries & furnishing Government House.
„	V.	Courts.
„	VI.	Criminal Jurisdiction (Grand Juries).
„	VII.	Court Deposits.
„	VIII.	Stamps Amendment.
„	IX.	Steam Vessels Survey.
„	X.	Chinese Immigrants.

The remaining four Bills only reached a second reading, and were left over for the next Session, viz : —

The Criminal Procedure Bill.
The Appeals Bill.
The Bill for the Repeal of certain Ordinances and Acts.
The Passenger Ships Bill.

On the 16th September it was announced to the Council that the first three could not be proceeded with, owing to the near approach of the Governor's departure, and to the absence at that time of both the Judges from Singapore. The Passenger Ships Bill would probably have been passed, but for the abrupt resignation of three of the un-official members on the 29th September, and for the same reason the Estimates for 1874, which were laid on the Table pro formâ on that day, had also to be postponed till the Council was re-constituted.

Besides the consideration of the above measures, the following are some of the principal subjects which occupied the time and attention of the Council :—

The North Sands Lighthouse.
The state of the Police.
The state of the Printing Establishment.
The Hospitals.
The Penang Wharf Scheme.
The Singapore Water Works.
Government Steam Vessels for the Straits.
Municipalities.
The Excise Farms.
The Cholera Epidemic.

The Defences of the Colony and the introduction of a Militia Bill formed part of the programme for the Session, but the Council was not asked to take up those subjects.

E. A. IRVING,
Late Clerk of Councils.

Singapore, 24th June, 1874.

Report of the Treasury for the year 1873.

TREASURY, SINGAPORE,
The 20th July, 1874.

SIR.

The undermentioned Statements so clearly show the Financial transactions and condition of the Colony for the year 1873, that but few remarks are called for.

No. 1. Statement of Assets and Liabilities on the 1st January 1873, and 1st January 1874.

No. 2. Abstract of Revenue and Expenditure, and of Receipts and Payments on Personal Accounts, 1873.

No. 3. Statement of Revenue Detailed, 1873.

No. 4. Statement of Expenditure Detailed, 1873.

It will be seen by Statement No. 1 that the Balance at the credit of the Colony which, on the 1st January, 1873, was $673,761.56 had, on the 1st January last, advanced to $748,850.26, showing an increase of $75,088.70. This cannot but be highly satisfactory, as proving that the Colony is more than self-supporting.

A reference to Statement No. 2 will show that the Revenue actually received during 1873 was $1,502,094.88 and the Expenditure 1,415,828.71

Showing an excess of Receipts of $86,266.17

But to find what may be termed the true Revenue and Expenditure of 1873, as distinct from the actual Receipts and Payments, it should be stated thus:—

Revenue received in 1873		$1,502,094.88
Deduct
Revenue in arrear on 1st January, 1873	$98,449.59
Do. received in 1873 in advance for 1874 ..	31,050.—	129,499.59
		$1,372,595.29
Add
Revenue received in 1872 belonging to 1873 ..	$31,050.—
Do. in arrear on 1st January, 1874 ..	40,281.97	71,331.97
		$1,443,927.26
Expenditure in 1873	$1,415,828.71
Deduct
Expenditure in arrear on 1st January, 1873 ..	107,693.42
	$1,308,135.29
Add
Expenditure in arrear on 1st January, 1874 ...	60,703.27	1,368,838.56
Excess of Revenue over Expenditure ..		$75,088.70

On reference to the Estimates for 1873, passed by Ordinance XI of 1872, it will be seen that the Revenue for the year was estimated at . . . . . $1,332,647.—
Whereas it amounted to $1,502,094.88

Showing an excess of $169,447.88

This excess is accounted for thus:

	Excess over Estimate.	Less than Estimated.
Land Revenue	$ 9,171.—
Rent exclusive of Land		$14,456.—
Licenses	30,572.—
Stamps	18,303.—
Port and Harbour Dues	28,331.—
Postage	18,985.—
Fines and Fees of Court	561.—
Fees of Office		230.—
Reimbursements P. Works and Convict Department	25,146.—
Do. Miscellaneous Department		2,973.—
Sale of Government Property	999.—
Interest	46,944.—
Miscellaneous	8,094.—
	$187,106.—	17,659.—
Deduct	17,659.—
Excess over Estimates	$169,447.—

In framing an Estimate of the Revenue of a Country much must be conjectural; it is impossible to fix it within some thousands of Dollars. But I think it may be considered as most satisfactory that, not only have the expectations of 1872 been fulfilled, but exceeded by the very handsome sum of $169,447; and that the Receipts of 1873 exceeded those of any previous year, if allowance is made for the Special Receipt of $64,287, and the Balance of the Police Superannuation Fund, which was transferred to Government in 1872.

The differences above noted may be briefly explained thus:

Land Sales at Singapore realized about $15,000 more, and at Penang about $6,000, less than was expected.

The deficiency in Rents exclusive of Land was owing to the two principal Markets at Singapore having been under repair and alteration for many months.

The increased Rent received under the new Contract for the Opium and Spirit Farms at Penang accounts for the excess under the head of Licenses.

The excess in Stamps and Postage is simply to be accounted for by increased Commercial and other transactions requiring Stamps, and by a greater correspondence passing through the Post Office.

Port and Harbour Dues show a large increase over the Estimate; this was principally caused by the adjustment by the Government of India in 1873 of Light Dues collected in India during a considerable period, and by the Local Receipts having amounted to about $7,000, more than was anticipated.

The excess in the Reimbursements on account of the Public Works and Convict Departments was owing to the Government of India adjusting the expenses on account of Convicts up to a later date than was anticipated, and also to the value of Convict labour employed on Public Works.

Interest shows a large excess, which resulted from the closing of the accounts for a larger supply of Copper Coin than expected, which naturally brought an increased amount of profit within the Receipts for the year. Some time must elapse before the profit on the Copper Coin can be written off so as to allow of all Bills properly chargeable against it to be got in.

In Miscellaneous the excess was owing to the increased fees received for Licenses under the Contagious Diseases Ordinance, and to the sum of $2,000 recovered from the Sureties of the late Assistant Treasurer at Malacca.

The other items do not I think call for any special remark, as any further information desired can be so easily obtained by comparing Statement No. 3 "Revenue Detailed" with the Estimates for 1873; and to go minutely into every small difference would necessitate a lengthy report that would be most probably wearisome to the reader.

I now turn to the Expenditure, the amount sanctioned by Ordinance XI. of 1872 was $1,331,666.23
The actual expenditure was 1,415,828.71

Shewing an excess of $84,162.48

From this sum must, however, be deducted the following items under Works and Buildings, provided for by Ordinance XII. of 1872, viz.:

Improvement of Supreme Court House, Singapore	$2,755.28
Erection of Post Office at Singapore	7,390.73
Improvement of Prison at do.	11,462.67
Do. do. Penang	419.18
Do. do. Malacca	8,569.57
	$30,597.43

There are three other items under the same head that were not included in the Estimates for 1873, but have been included in the amount of Expenditure above stated, and which, being special Works, should also be deducted when drawing a comparison between the Estimates and the Expenditure thereunder, viz:

Erection of a Market at Clyde Terrace	$31,670.31
Erecting Light house on North Sands	7,008,88
Water Works	2,238.59
	$40,917,78

These two sums aggregating $71,515.21 may properly be deducted from Works and Buildings and thus reduce the expenditure under that Head from $153,563.79 to $82,048.58.

The difference between the estimated and actual expenditure under the different Heads of service, is shewn in the following statement.

	Estimate.	Actual.	Excess.	Less.
Salaries	527,156.82	509,503.30	..	17,653.52

Excess over Estimates		$12,647.27	12,647.27

The total excess thus shown is very small, and would not call for any remark were it not that under some of the Heads the Expenditure has been largely in excess, and in others greatly less, in amount than was anticipated.

As regards Salaries the principal saving has been in the Public Works Department of about $2,000:—Harbour Department $1,000:—Government Vessels $800:—Courts of Requests and Police Courts $1,500:—Ecclesiastical Department 1,000:—Police $11,000:—and Gaols $800:—Against which there has been excess of Expenditure by Lieutenant-Governors and Secretariat of about $1,800,—and Audit Department $1,000.

The excess under Medical was caused almost entirely on account of the large number of Paupers including Lepers, while that for the Police was due to the cost of Arms, Clothing, and Accoutrements from Europe, the first item having been omitted from the Estimate and the latter having far exceeded the anticipated cost. The excess under the head of Gaols was caused by the cost of Rations for Prisoners, while the large sum of $55,883 expenses in the Convict Department, is satisfactorily accounted for by the adjustment of accounts with the Indian Government for the maintenance of Convicts in India, which had been resting over for a considerable period, and by $18,267.10 the cost of removing Convicts to India, the latter sum being re-payable by the Government of India.

The next item is an excess in expenditure of $10,354 on account of Government Vessels; $6,000 of this was incurred for Docking and Repairs, and $4,000 on account of Fuel and Water more than was estimated. This is followed by a decrease for Conveyance of Mails, which may be said to be almost a matter of account, a certain proportion of Postage received on certain letters has to be paid to the Imperial Government, and if it is not paid in one year it has to be in the next; a much smaller amount than was anticipated was paid to the Imperial Government during 1873, while on the other hand a much larger sum than was expected was paid during that year to the Government of India on account of the Subsidy for the conveyance of the Burmah and Indian Mail.

There are but two items left of any importance, viz., Roads, Streets, and Bridges where the expenditure has been less by $40,000 than anticipated, and Special Expenses $8,600, which were not provided for. With regard to the first $26,000 was put down for the construction of a Bridge over the Prye River in Province Wellesley, of which only $124.65 was spent in 1873, and the balance was principally for other Works in Penang and Province Wellesley which had not been commenced or completed.

With regard to Special Expenses, no provision was made in the Estimates; such charges must occur and the principal item was incurred under a Resolution of Council on a communication from the Secretary of State.

Statement No. 4 "Expenditure Detailed" gives full particulars of every item of expenditure, and it is only necessary to compare it with the Estimates of 1873 to ascertain the exact difference between any estimated and actual Disbursement.

In conclusion, I would submit that the Colony, with its large and increasing balance, may justly be considered as in a most satisfactory position; that the expenditure will increase must be expected, firstly, from the fact that the work to be performed is increasing yearly; and secondly, owing to the enhanced cost of what may be termed the mere necessaries of life having of late years made the Pay of most Government Servants insufficient for their proper support; the Salaries of the Civil Servants in England have been lately increased on this account, and the Government Officers of this Colony deserve a similar consideration. I at least have no doubt that the Revenue of the Colony will continue to improve and be found to be more than amply sufficient to place the Establishment of the Colony on a fair and satisfactory footing and to leave a surplus after providing for all other proper, and necessary charges.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your obedient Servant,
W. W. WILLANS,
Colonial Treasurer,
Straits Settlements.

To
The Honorable
The Colonial Secretary,
Straits Settlements.

Report of the Postmaster General for the year 1873.

GENERAL POST OFFICE,
Singapore, 30th June, 1874.

SIR,—I have the honor to submit for the information of His Excellency the Governor, my second report upon the Postal Department of the Straits Settlements. In doing so it is gratifying to be able to invite attention to the satisfactory results of our labours during the year 1873.

2. By the appended tabular return and comparative statement of the number of Letters, Newspapers, Books and Parcels, received for, and despatched from, the Straits Settlements in 1872, and 1873, together with the Revenue and Expenditure during those years, it will be seen that the Department has made steady progress; the number of Letters, &c., received in 1873, for local distribution being 55,933 in excess of those received in 1872, and that 55,596 Letters, &c., were despatched in 1873 over and above the number in 1872.

3. The total postal receipts in 1873 amounted to $106,933.56, thus exceeding the revenue of 1872 by $4,306.44. The sum payable to the Imperial Post Office in 1873 was $57,100.88, and the Colonial revenue amounted to $49,832. 68. The expenditure in 1873 was $21,694.43, thus leaving a nett profit to the Colony on Postal Collections, Sale of Postage Stamps, and Miscellaneous Postal Receipts, not including Money Order business, or profit on exchange, of $28,138.25, or $4,356.57 more than the nett profit of 1872.

4. The Money Order transactions with the United Kingdom in 1872 amounted to £936.9.8. against £1,823.18.8. in 1873: and as regards local money orders, business was done to the extent of $2,597.88 in 1873, whilst in 1872 the local money orders issued only amounted to $252.75.

5. In July, 1872, this Colony reduced its share of the rate of postage on letters conveyed between Singapore and Penang by contract steamers from 4 cents to 2 cents the half-ounce, and the postage on letters conveyed between the Settlements by private steamers from 6 cents to 4 cents the half-ounce. The rates on the latter description of correspondence have been further reduced during this year, and a penny the half-ounce is all that is now charged on letters exchanged by means of private steamers between Singapore, Malacca, Penang and Province Wellesley.

6. On the 1st May, 1873, Sub-Post Offices were opened at Butterworth and Bukit Tamboon in Province Wellesley. These Offices have up to the end of last year more than paid their expenses, and it is the intention of Government to extend postal communication in Province Wellesley by increasing the number of Sub-Offices.

7. There are now two Postal deliveries during the day throughout the town of Singapore, and when four Pillar posts which have been constructed are erected, and their positions known, the daily deliveries will probably be much availed of, and prove a considerable convenience to the public.

8. Attempts were made in the latter part of 1872, and in 1873, to enter into conventions with the neighbouring Governments with a view to the adoption of a uniform rate of postage with free delivery at each end, of all prepaid correspondence exchanged with the Straits Settlements, but nothing definite was done until this year; the matter is now however so far advanced that in a few months it is likely such correspondence will be conveyed between the Straits Settlements and Netherlands India, China, Japan, Saigon and Sarawak at a uniform and cheap rate, without charge on its delivery.

9. Considerable attention has been paid to a want felt by the Chinese labouring class in the Straits Settlements of a means for forwarding letters and making small remittances to their friends in the interior of China; and a scheme is now under consideration which will probably not only add to the postal revenue of the Colony, but provide the necessary facilities for the exchange of the correspondence of this class of persons, and enable them to send money to their relatives and friends in China.

10. The Establishment of a Savings Bank for the Settlements in connection with the General Post Office is under the consideration of Government. Such an institution would encourage frugality amongst persons with small incomes, and thus tend materially to improve their social condition and habits; and if to the Bank was added a Loan Office, as is done in a neighbouring Colony, the profits derived from the one source would cover the cost of Establishments, and provide the means for paying a liberal interest on deposits.

A Savings Bank by itself if economically worked ought here to pay 4 or 4½ per cent. on deposits.

11. A new General Post Office was commenced last year, and is approaching completion. It is situated in a very central position, and will afford to the Public and the Department that accommodation which has long been required.

12. There has been no instance of a mail having been lost; and of the alleged loss or miscarriage of letters, it has almost in every instance been found that the miscarriage was owing to defective or insufficient address. As a specimen of the eccentric addresses on some of the letters entrusted to the post here, I may give the following :—

"Miss
With the white cross on the locket,
Peterboro Station,
Refreshment room."
"Viâ Marseilles."

This letter was duly forwarded and reached the nameless wearer of the white cross, but as it was "Unpaid" she refused to accept it, and it was returned to this office.

13. During 1873 it was settled that this Colony should receive an intercolonial or transit rate on certain correspondence originating on the continent of Europe intended for places beyond Singapore when forwarded loose through this office; and arrangements were completed for the optional pre-payment of correspondence exchanged viâ Trieste between the Straits Settlements and Europe.

14. An Imperial Postal Agency was established at Singapore with a view to providing for the due performance of certain duties in connexion with the transhipment of closed mails passing to and from the Phillippine Islands, Java, Siam, Labuan, and Sarawak, owing to Singapore being the point of junction between the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company's Packets and the several Foreign mail packets communicating with the other places referred to.

15. The Contract for conveying the mails between the General Post Office, and the several wharves expired in July last; and on fresh tenders for the service being advertised for, two only were received; that of the former contractor being the lower was accepted at $135 per month, as against $120 previously paid; and as the number of mails received and despatched is steadily increasing, it was thought advisable to enter into a contract for three years. The British Post Office has, since June, 1872, contributed $12 a month towards the coach service in question.

16. During the year 1873 the Dutch expedition to Acheen opened Field Post Offices, and the bulk of their correspondence passed through the General Post Office, Singapore, and the Post Office at Penang.

17. A mail contract service between Aden and the Cape of Good Hope viâ Zanzibar has been established, and closed mail packets are now made up for all the ports on the Eastern Coast of Africa at which the steamers call.

18. The steamers of the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company from Australia to Point de Galle do not now connect with the steamers of the same Company between Bombay and China, and, consequently, the Australian mails viâ Ceylon have, for the greater part of 1873, been brought on to Singapore by steamers of the Messageries Maritimes Company, the French Post Office claiming a share of the postage.

19. Towards the latter part of the year notice was received from Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, and from the Postmaster-General of Queensland, that a mail packet service was about to be established between Brisbane and Singapore viâ Torres Straits, and that the mails exchanged between the United Kingdom and Queensland would be forwarded viâ Singapore.

20. This service was duly commenced, and the Imperial Post Office fixed the rate of postage on letters at what it is on correspondence exchanged between Singapore and Australia viâ Point de Galle, viz., a shilling the half ounce, of which ten pence the half ounce is placed to the credit of the British Post Office, that office settling the accounts with Queensland for the correspondence referred to. This rate of postage is disproportionately high, and it is probable that an agreement with a view to its reduction will be come to, between the Governments of Queensland and the Straits Settlements.

I have, &c.,

Report of the Inspector of Schools for the year 1873.

SUPERVISION and proper Inspection have this year for the first time been undertaken by Government. The Inspector of Schools was appointed in January, and completed his first Inspections in the course of the next four months. In June a full Report on their condition and claims was laid before Council, and after a brief discussion its recommendations were adopted; a sum of $3,000 was granted as a Supplementary Estimate for 1873, and an addition of $6,000 to the Estimates for 1874, was sanctioned prospectively. In the Estimates finally passed by Council this amount was increased to $8,002, distributed among the three Settlements as follows:—

Singapore	$2,740
Penang	3,504
Malacca	1,120
Scholarships, &c., ...	638

In Penang which has received the largest share the vote to the principal English Schools has been doubled ($2,400) and the Vernacular grants have been increased from $1,000 to $2,500. In Singapore and Malacca the principal additional grants were also to the Vernacular Schools, amounting in the aggregate to $2,820.

The claims of these Schools upon Government were peculiarly strong. At the last Census there were 91,000 children in the Colony, and of these 68,000 were Malays, and 6,500 were Tamils, of whom but 510, and 108 respectively attended any of the Schools inspected. In the English Schools there were but 87 altogether, that is to say rather less than 4 per cent. of the pupils.

The few native Schools that existed were for the most part to be found in Malacca. In Singapore and Penang there were but three altogether, and there was not one in either of the towns. The question of Vernacular Education had not in fact been taken up; and before the Inspector's appointment there was no one upon whom the duty devolved. In the case of the English Schools it was different. The only Government School is the small one at Bukit Tamboon. The others are all managed independently; some of them are Mission Schools, connected with societies in Europe; while the Raffles Institute, and the Free Schools of Penang, and Malacca, are in the position of "Public Schools," and their funds are disposed of by their respective Trustees.

The direct interference of the new Government Department was therefore confined to Vernacular instruction; that is to say to Malay and Tamil Schools; the Chinese being unwilling to accept either Government aid or inspection for their indigenous Schools. There was at least as much to be done in improving those that already existed as in opening new ones. The principal Malay School was thus described.

"The teacher states that he never received instructions about his Malay teaching, and that the parents always insisted upon the Koran being taught first. In fact through the absence of Government control he appears to have passed under the anthority of parents and pupils." This account would stand good for nearly all the Malay Schools; and to bring such a state of things into order was possibly a harder task than to start afresh.

The means proposed were "systematic superintendence and encouragement." When the former was enforced nothing but the encouragement offered, in the shape of prizes to the pupils, and increased Salary to the teachers, prevented the School from closing; as it was this happened in two or three cases. About $150 in all was distributed among the pupils last year in the form of Scholarships to the winners at half-yearly competitions. The increase in the Salaries was in most cases postponed until the close of the year; when it was made to recommend a new system of payment by capitation rate, under which the average increase is about 30 percent. The superintendence was a more difficult matter. Of course the first steps, such as providing proper Rules, Registers, courses of study, &c. devolved upon the Inspector, and could be regulated from Singapore. But the class of Teacher obtained for the salaries then offered proved both unwilling and incompetent to observe what was prescribed. Finding this the case, on his second visit in August the Inspector proposed to appoint Visiting Teachers in Penang and Malacca as had already been done in Province Wellesley. The Governor deemed it necessary however to postpone the matter so as to bring it before Council, and a considerable delay ensued. The Visiting Teachers have since been appointed. Undoubtedly much improvement is to be observed in these Schools, as could hardly fail to be the case, considering their previous condition. Instead of learning to recite by heart the Arabic Koran, the boys are now taught to read and write their own language, and as many as 77 passed at the recent inspection in or above Standard III.—"Read without hesitation from an easy book." At the first inspection the number was only 15, though the test was a much easier one.

The number of pupils increased during the year from 635 to 1,032, and the number of Schools from 28 to 38; of the new schools all but one are Malay Schools. Some delay has arisen in regard to Tamil Schools owing to the difficulty of obtaining good teachers. Application has now been made to Ceylon, and Madras.

The same difficulty is experienced regarding Malay Teachers, whom it is impossible to obtain elsewhere. The Colony is in fact undertaking a great experiment,—"to teach the Malay his own written language." The Dutch native Schools have hitherto taught in the Roman character, which without some coercive measure is impracticable, even if desirable, in these Settlements. We are therefore thrown on our own resources, and there are probably not 20 Malays to be found with any knowledge of Arithmetic. It was therefore proposed by the Inspector to open a Training Class; at first it was intended to connect it with Mr. Keasberry's Boarding School, and $300 only were asked for. That scheme proved impossible and the Raffles Trustees were then applied to; but after considerable delay no definite answer has yet been obtained from them. The sum of $1,000 has been provided to ensure ample funds in case they undertake the work; if not it must devolve upon Government. Steps have been taken to increase the number of Malay School books, and a supply of Maps has been obtained from England, including a large Dutch one of the Malay Archipelago; no such Map with English spelling can be procured.

In the English Schools the efforts of the Inspector have been directed to improving rather than extending the Education afforded. The numbers on the Rolls are already very large. The first step taken was to increase the number of the Annual Scholarships from 3 to 5, and their value from $210 to $420. The subjects also were slightly modified, the period in History being limited, and Composition introduced in place of Dictation. The examiners reported favourably of the results. The first place was obtained by Tek Soon, a Chinese boy. Another step in the same direction was the introduction of the new, and more precise mode of inspection, which forms the necessary machinery for the system of "payment by results." A code of rules with a scheme for introducing that system into all our Boy Schools has since been submitted by the Inspector.

A third measure was the publication in the Government Gazette of the names of all boys who attained Standard VI. At the same time it was proposed and sanctioned, that all candidates for junior appointments should be required to obtain a Certificate showing that they had passed under that standard before leaving School. The usefulness of this measure will depend upon its being strictly enforced and given full effect to, by other employers it is hoped, as well as by Government.

Through these and other indirect means alone can the views and the influence of Government be brought to bear upon our English Schools. Full information also on the whole subject of Education in this Colony has now been collected for the first time.

The Trustees of the Free Schools both at Penang and Malacca, have added new buildings to their Schools, furnishing further accommodation for about 150 scholars, the Inspector having reported the present School-rooms to be overcrowded. The general results of the year's operations may be judged from the following summary, taken from the Inspector's second Annual Report for 1873.

OFFICE OF PRINCIPAL CIVIL MEDICAL OFFICER,
STRAITS SETTLEMENTS.

No. 11 Singapore, 27th June, 1874.

SIR,—I have the honor to submit the accompanying Annual Returns and Reports of the Medical Department in the Straits Settlements for the year 1873.

I have, &c.,

Annual Medical Report of the Civil Hospitals in the Straits Settlements, for the year 1873.

IN the accompanying Return, embracing the whole of the sick treated in the different Hospitals of the Straits Settlements, there is matter I think for congratulation that the Public Health has suffered so little, and only in Singapore has it been affected for a short time by disease of an epidemic character.

There have been during the twelve months under review exclusive of Cholera Cases 5,588 admissions, which, together with 711 remaining in Hospitals on the 31st December 1872, gives a total of 6,299 cases treated; of these 530 were Europeans and 5,769 Natives; from among these there has been a total of 776 deaths or 12.3 per cent, of total treated, 29 of which number or 5.5 per cent, were Europeans, and 747 or 12.9 per cent., Natives.

The rate of mortality shown above as 12.3 per cent is, I regret to say, a very high one, but is due to the fact that among Europeans a large number of the fatal cases are simply brought to Hospital in an advanced stage of illness, for instance as shown hereafter in the report of the Colonial Surgeon Singapore,—6 of these deaths occurred alone in cases from Phthisis whose average period of treatment in Hospital was barely four days Amongst Natives, the rate of mortality is swollen by the number of deaths in the Pauper Hospitals. In the Pauper Hospital, Singapore, there have been 310 deaths out of a total of 1,461 treated or 21.2 per cent., and in Penang there have been 171 deaths to a total treated of 666 or 25.6 per cent., and in Malacca 101 deaths out of a total of 356 treated or 28 per cent., and in Province Wellesley again where men are invariably sent to Hospital from different Estates in an advanced stage of disease the death rate has also been very high, amounting to 11.6 per cent. Excluding, therefore, the mortality in the different Pauper Hospitals and Province Wellesley, the death rate from other classes and causes is reduced to 5.5 per cent.

Compared with the results of 1872 there has been a total increase of 986 admissions or a total of 1,219 in the total treated, giving an increase in the death rate of 4 per cent.

Mean daily Sick	527	823	296

The Return submitted shows the influence of the different classes of disease in causing the sickness and mortality in each of the Hospitals of the several Settlements.

There has been a decrease in the ratio of admissions by both groups of General diseases, but an increase in the number of deaths.

Compared with the results of 1872 there has been an increase in the admissions to Hospital in all the Settlements, excepting Malacca. The death rate is greater in all the Settlements, and the mean daily sick is also larger, excepting Malacca, where there has been a decrease of three only. See Table below :—

	Admission.		Deaths.		Mean daily Sick.

The Admissions and Deaths by the various classes of diseases at the several Hospitals in all the Settlements are shown in the appended Table B.

GENERAL DISEASES.—There has been a decrease in the prevalence of the Febrile groups throughout the Settlements, but a large increase of the Constitutional groups. Singapore has furnished the highest ratio of admissions by Febrile, and also Constitutional diseases. Fevers of an intermittent type have furnished the bulk of admissions under this head.

Chronic Rheumatism.—There has been a small increase in the admissions under this head, and the ratio has been greater in Singapore than the other Settlements.

Phthisis Pulmonalis.—There has been 26 admissions under this head against 15 in the previous year, sixteen of which have ended fatally; of the 26 cases eight were Europeans, six of which proved fatal; these cases were those already alluded to, as having been sent to Hospital from different ships almost in a dying state.

LOCAL DISEASES.

Ophthalmia.—Forty-eight cases of simple conjunctivitis amongst the Native prisoners in the Gaol at Singapore have been under treatment during the year, but at no time has the disease existed in an epidemic form.

Paralysis.—Twenty-nine cases have been admitted under this head, out of which 28 have occurred in the several Pauper Hospitals Chest Affections.—Under this head the principal admissions are returned as from Chronic Bronchitis, and Pneumonic Phthisis chiefly having occurred amongst old worn out broken down men.

DIGESTIVE SYSTEM.

Dysentery.—There have been 225 admissions from this disease, 26 of which were Europeans, the mortality from this cause however has been entirely confined to Natives, furnishing 52 deaths or 20 per cent.

Diarrhœa.—364 admissions under this head, with 115 deaths, have occurred; of this number there have been 29 Europeans with 3 deaths, and 335 Natives with 112 deaths; showing amongst the latter the enormous ratio of 33 per cent. However, this is explained by the fact that, the majority of these cases occurred in those who had been suffering for some time previously from extensive sloughing ulcers, in which exhaustive diarrhœa supervened, and the patient rapidly succumbed.

Hepatitis.—Has afforded 12 cases with 2 deaths amongst Europeans, and 5 cases and 1 death amongst Natives; the 2 Europeans cases that ended fatally were admitted to Hospital only a few hours before death and were past all treatment at the time.

CUTANEOUS SYSTEM.

Ulcus.—394 cases were admitted under this head with 80 deaths; I need hardly mention that the bulk of these cases were Chinese paupers, 152 of this number are returned from the Prisons Hospital, most of them vagrants.

Debility.

159 cases were admitted with 57 deaths, all amongst Natives, and principally cases in the Pauper Hospitals.

Poisons.

37 Cases were admitted under this head with 7 deaths; of these 7 were from Arsenic, one only proving fatal; 5 were cases of Lead Colic, caused by the accidental poisoning of Vinegar on board ship; 7 cases of poisoning by Opium, two of which were fatal; 9 from Alcohol, one fatal; 4 from Stramonium, 4 by eating poisoned fish, three of which were fatal, and one case of stinging insects.

Injuries.

Under this head 707 cases were admitted with 32 deaths, the majority of these cases were superficial wounds or contusions. I regret that no record has been kept distinguishing the cause of injury, as to whether accidental, homicidal, or self-inflicted; I may safely assert that the bulk of these injuries have been homicidal.

SINGAPORE.

General Hospital.—This institution occupied the old Buildings known as the Hospital Bukit Timah Road from 1st January to 22nd July, 1873, when on the outbreak of the Cholera in the Lunatic Asylum and immediate neighbourhood, it was considered prudent to shift the patients to the building known as the Sepoy Hospital at the other end of the Town. This building was then occupied by the Non-Commissioned Officers of the Police, but was given over for the accommodation of the European sick; one of the subdivision barracks was also given up for the Natives, and these Buildings are still utilised for this purpose.

The present situation of the Hospital has many advantages over the old Building, being on more elevated ground with fine dry soil and natural drainage, and is more open to all the prevailing breezes.

During the year it will be seen from the Return that there were treated in the European Ward, 329 cases, 314 of whom were admissions.

Colonial Surgeon Hampshire who was in Medical Charge, reports as follows:—

European Ward.—The largest number of admissions is under the head of Intermittent Fever.

The admissions from Primary Syphilis were 22, and from Gonorrhœa 8. In 1872, 16 from the former and 18 from the latter; in 1871, 12 and 5 respectively. Syphilis therefore appears to be on the increase; possibly this may be due to the quick communication by Steamers with other Ports. In next year's report I trust I shall be able to show the number of imported cases.

Notwithstanding the epidemic of Cholera, there were fewer admissions from Diarrhœa and Dysentery than in the two preceding years.

The greatest mortality occurs under the head of Phthisis, to which 6 deaths are due; the average time in Hospital being barely 4 days. All these cases were in the most advanced stage and the exertion consequent upon their removal to Hospital hastened their death. Three of these fatal cases were Spanish subjects en route to Europe from Manilla, who were landed here, and who should never have been allowed to embark on board any vessel.

Febris Remittens,—was fatal in 4 cases. In one case death took place within 24 hours after admission; in 3 the disease had been contracted in Java.

Enteric Fever was fatal in two cases, one was a Sailor belonging to the Royal Navy, the other to the Mercantile Marine.

The fatal case of Hydrothorax was remarkable for being the result of a fractured rib causing Pleuritis with effusion and subsequent Empyema. The effusion was great on the man's admission, and no relief being obtained by medicines, Paracentesis Thoracis was performed with Dieulafoy's aspirator four times, which however only gave temporary relief, and the effusion which was at first sero-sanguineous became purulent. No history of any injury could be obtained from the patient, who had been ill several weeks previous to admission, and it was only at the post mortem examination that the cause of the disease was apparent.

Hepatitis,—was fatal in 2 cases, one a few hours after admission from abscess.

The death under the head of Gangrene of the penis was in an old man 62 years of age, who was suffering from heart disease and disease of the urinary system generally.

In the latter part of the year two cases of Cholera were admitted, these were sporadic cases. One no doubt was imported from Batavia from which place the man had lately arrived, and where Cholera was at the time prevalent. The other man was admitted from the Sailor's Home; he had recently been in Hospital for Paralysis and his constitution was thoroughly undermined.

The per centage of deaths to total treated will be seen to amount to over 8 per cent, but this increase is entirely due to the deaths from Phthisis and Cholera above alluded to, the ordinary mortality only amounting to 5.77.

In the Native Ward there were 626 admissions, or 646 total treated during the year.

Dr. Hampshire reports :—

The returns for the Native Ward show the total number treated to have been 646, a decrease of 435 compared with 1872, and rather less than in 1871. The number treated for injuries amounted to 32 per cent. In 1872 and 1871, it was 38 and 44 per cent., respectively. This diminution is due no doubt to the non-frequency of disturbances amongst the Chinese population during the year. Rather less than one half the deaths (10) were the result of injuries.

The admissions from Primary Syphilis were 18, the same as in 1872, and a slight increase on 1871. Gonorrhœa shows an increase, being nearly double that of 1871, (11 to 6).

Diseases of the Alimentary Canal proved fatal in 4 cases, and those of the chest in 3 cases, none call for any special remarks.

Compound Fracture of the Skull proved fatal in 3 cases, one death is due to Fracture of base of Skull.

PRISONS HOSPITAL.

Dr. Rowell who was in Medical Charge during the year reports as follows :—

The Health of the Convicts in Gaol during their stay in the Settlement has been satisfactory.

The return under review includes 3 classes of Prisoners viz :—

Transmarine	Convicts.
Criminal	Prisoners.
Civil	Prisoners.

Transmarine Convicts.—The average strength of the Convicts was 1,283; out-of this number there were 200 men quartered within the Gaol premises, the others being liberated on Ticket-of-leave, and those who from infirmity and old age could not work for themselves and earn a livelihood, were sent to the Invalid lines.

In May, 1873, the Transmarine Convicts remaining in Gaol were transferred to the Andaman Islands, Ceylon, and Madras, and the Convict Establishment in this Settlement was then broken up.

From 1st January to the time of their departure, 2nd May, 1873, there were :—

Admissions into Hospital	135
Total treated	160
Discharged	144
Died	12
Transferred	4
Average daily Sick	21
Percentage of Sick to Strength	1.6
Do. Deaths do.	0.9

The principal diseases from which these men suffered, were Fevers, Chronic Rheumatism, Diarrhœa and General Debility.

Of the 12 deaths reported those occurring under the head of Poisonous fish call for special remarks.

On the night of the 19th February, four Burnese Convicts were brought into Hospital suffering from vomiting, giddiness, violent pains in stomach and bowels and a sensation of constriction about the Glottis. Within four hours three of the cases proved fatal, the other was with difficulty brought round by stimulants, &c.

The post mortem examination revealed nothing abnormal, with the exception of some slight inflammatory patches in the mucous membranes of the stomach and bowels.

The ejected matters, as also portions of the stomach, liver and kidneys, were subjected to Chemical analysis, but no poison, either Animal, Vegetable or Mineral, could be detected.

From enquiries made it would appear that these four men messed together, and that on the evening in question they had eaten the Roe of the Toad fish, which is said to be poisonous and I believe this was the cause of their illness and death.

The survivor is said to have eaten very little of it, and consequently recovered.

Criminal Prisoners.—This class of Prisoners, includes Europeans, Chinese, Malays and Indians sentenced by the Local Authorities to rigorous imprisonment extending from one week to life, the Chinese being the majority.

The health of these Prisoners has not been satisfactory during the past year, as will be seen from the following Table in which the number of admissions into Hospital as also the death rate is large when compared to the previous year.

	1872	1873
The Average Strength has been	530	662
Total Admissions into Hospital	464	818
Do. Treated	506	852
Do. Discharged	458	766
Died	14	36
Remaining	34	49
Average daily No. of Sick	39	58
Percentage of deaths to total treated	2.7	4.2
Do. Sick to Strength	7.3	8.7
Do. Deaths do.	2.6	5.4

The Prisoners, with the exception of the Europeans are treated in the Transmarine Ward, which is sufficiently large to accommodate 72 Patients, giving a cubic space of 1,209 cubic feet to each.

The largest number of patients in the Hospital on any single day amounted to 79, and the amount of cubic space available for each patient was never under 1,000 cubic feet.

The average European Sick seldom exceeded 6. They are treated in a Dormitory which is apportioned off, and fitted up as an Infirmary giving ample accommodation for 6 sick. But a proper Hospital for the treatment of this class of Prisoners is still much wanted, and its non-provision is to be deplored.

The following diseases caused the largest number of admissions into Hospital, viz., Fevers, Rheumatism, Syphilis, Conjunctivitis, Dysentery, and Diarrhœa, Abscesses and Ulcers, Debility, Punishment and Wounds.

Abscesses and Ulcers form a very large proportion of admissions into Hospital. There are a large number of Prisoners who are committed by the Magistrates to the Gaol suffering from Ulcers who pass the whole of their time in Hospital, where no work is done. I am fully convinced that many of this class of men commit themselves outside, for the mere purpose of gaining admission into Hospital where they know they would be looked after, and probably pass the whole of the time of their imprisonment in it. I may here also remark that several Paupers picked off the streets are committed to this Prison for vagrancy, but who are more fit subjects for the Pauper Hospital. This system only tends to swell the admissions and death rate in the Prison Hospital.

There were 30 admissions from Punishment, and one case proved fatal from it under the following circumstances. The subject a healthy strong young Chinaman was sentenced and received 12 cuts from a rattan. He was admitted into Hospital on the 10th June, and shortly after admission, the wound took on a gangrenous aspect. There were several other Prisoners in Hospital at the time suffering from the effects of flogging whose wounds had also become gangrenous. These recovered, but the Prisoner above alluded to continued to grow worse, and the whole of the right buttock sloughed away, Diarrhœa supervened, and after being 152 days under treatment, he died on the 9th November, 1873.

There has been no epidemic among the Prisoners in the past year.

During the Cholera epidemic which prevailed in the Town, it was greatly feared that it would break out amongst the Prisoners, but owing to timely sanitary precautions, this was in a measure averted. One Sub Warder was attacked with Cholera while on duty in the Prison; he was at once isolated and attended to, but died within 12 hours. Of the six prisoners who were suspicious cases of Cholera and sent to the Cholera Hospital, 3 died and 3 returned, cured.

The supply of drinking water for Sick and other Prisoners is obtained from wells outside the Prison, but conducted into the Prison Tanks by means of iron pipes. The quality of the water was good and the supply sufficient in the early part of the year; but during the months of July, August, and September, this supply failed, and it became necessary to purchase water from other sources, both for drinking and bathing purposes.

Latrines.—The day Latrine used by the Sick is kept in a cleanly state, and the dry earth system of conservancy carried out as much as practicable. The night Latrine which opens into the Ward is objectionable, as it is badly constructed and ill-ventilated, and although kept clean, the odour from it sometimes contaminates the whole Ward, depending much upon the direction of the wind.

Prison.—The Sanitary condition of the Criminal Prison with regard to accommodation, ventilation and Latrines is efficient and satisfactory.

Civil Prisoners.—This class of Prisoners includes those sentenced to simple imprisonment, those awaiting trial, and those who may happen to be under sentence of Death.

These Prisoners as a rule enjoy good health, and do not call for any special remarks.

The Average Strength for the past year has been 41.

Pauper Hospital.—During the past year another Attap shed on wooden piles capable of containing 60 paupers has been erected, making in all 4 Attap sheds in addition to the original permanent building, so that there is now accommodation for about 420 paupers, this I, nevertheless, believe will soon be felt to be insufficient for the wants of the Colony.

The general health of the inmates has been good, there has been no epidemic disease amongst them during the past year, and although Cholera was prevalent in the neighbourhood not a single case occurred.

In June last, the Lepers were removed from the old Attap shed, to a brick building which was formerly used as a Branch Gaol, for the prisoners employed at Brick-making at the Brick kilns, distant about ¾ of a mile from the Pauper Hospital.

The bulk of the admissions are from Chronic Rheumatism with a Syphilitic taint, Diarrhœa, sloughing phagedenic Ulcers, and old indolent Ulcers, calling for no particular remarks.

During the year there have been :—

Admitted	.. 1,128
Total treated	.. 1,461

Of these were:—

Discharged	352
Absconded	397
Died	310
Remaining	402
Percentage of deaths	21.2

It is found exceedingly difficult to keep the inmates from absconding, and wandering about the Streets as mendicants, many are brought back by the Police, and by their re-admissions help to swell the number returned as "Admitted," while some are taken before the Magistrate, and committed to the Criminal Prison as vagrants.

In August, 1873, Basket making, &c., from bamboos and rattans, &c., was introduced, and promises to work fairly.

The system of management is still as before, being under a Board of Official and Non-Official Members.

The high death rate is caused by most of the cases on admissions being in a moribund state, either from Sloughing phagedenic ulcers, Diarrhœa, or inanition.

The epidemic of Cholera which broke out on the 16th of July (previous to my return), lasted from the above date until the middle of September.

In what manner the disease originated is difficult to say. Cholera had been raging in Bangkok all the month of June, and on the 4th July at a Meeting of the Executive Council, all vessels arriving from Ports in Siam were subjected to strict Quarantine on arrival here. The first case of Cholera that intimation was received of occurred on the 16th July, but by the Registrar-General's Report of Deaths, cases were registered as having occurred on the 2nd July, of which however no notice was given to the Medical Authorities; in fact I cannot ascertain that these cases were ever officially reported to Government. That the disease may therefore have been imported from Siam is quite probable, although at the same time the sanitary state of Singapore, aided by atmospheric conditions, such as long previous drought, deficient supply of water, great heat, &c., &c., was such as to prove favorable for the developement of the disease per se, and its propagation.

There can be no question that many cases of Cholera had proved fatal, without being brought to the notice of the Medical Authorities previous to the 16th July, when it first appeared in the Lunatic Asylum, and many cases of deaths reported as occurring from Diarrhœa of very short duration, were likely to have been Cholera or allied to it. But the appearance of the disease in the Lunatic Asylum first brought it to direct notice, and on enquiry it was found, that in the immediate neighbourhood of the Asylum there were no fewer than 5 deaths all bearing the characteristic appearances of deaths from Cholera. The disease being identified, immediate measures were taken to improve the sanitary condition of the drains, &c., medicines with the necessary instructions were supplied to the several Police Stations, and the Native public notified to bring to notice at an early stage any tendency to this disease; but owing to the many prejudices of the Natives they failed to apply for medical assistance, or even to report the occurrence of the disease till it had proved fatal, and thus the mortality was no doubt greater than it otherwise would have been. The disease at first raged with great severity in Kampong Kapoor, a low district on the north bank of the Canal where the people are poor, living in low squalid huts raised a few feet above the ground, and having their latrines just beneath the floor of the hut which was washed at every tide; a district which is within 1,000 yards radius of the Asylum. It continued to keep along the bank of the Canal reaching into the Rochore district; and then gradually extended southwards across the river towards Tanjong Pagar Road, and the more populous parts of the Town of Singapore on the south bank; and gradually died out, so that on the 10th September it was considered advisable to remove the restriction on the port and declare it free from the epidemic.

For the reception of such cases as were brought to notice, an Attap shed was erected on the middle of the Race Course behind the Hospital, in which were treated 69 cases, of which 46 proved fatal. Nearly all these cases were admitted in a state of collapse, dying in 4 or 5 hours, and were from the first hopeless cases.

During this epidemic 857 cases of Cholera were reported and 357 deaths, being:—

On the north side of the river 500 cases and 236 deaths. On the south 357 cases and 121 deaths, making a total as above of 857 cases and 357 deaths.

PENANG.

On the Hospitals in Penang, Colonial Surgeon Veitch in Medical Charge reports :—

The Settlement of Penang during the year 1873, has been remarkably healthy. No Small-pox has come under my observation during the 12 months under review.

Much is still required in George town in the way of an improved system of drainage and sewerage; the dead level on which it is built will always present difficulties to its accomplishment, but I hope before my next Annual Report to be able to speak of improvements.

GENERAL HOSPITAL.

European Wards.—There are two Wards styled respectively "Officer's Ward" and "Seamen's Ward". These wards form the upper story of the northern extremity of the Hospital Building. The first is 20 feet in length by 20 in breadth, and 14 in height and has a cubic capacity of 5,600: the second is 32 feet in length, 20 in breadth and 14 in height and contains 8,960 cubic feet of space. These wards are separated from each other by a thin plank partition 8 feet high, and they are ventilated by two doors and 10 windows, and have further a ridge ventilator running the whole length of the roof.

The number of patients admitted into the European Wards, General Hospital, amounts to 65, being an excess of 52 over the previous year; of these 31 were Seamen belonging to the Dutch Squadron engaged in the blockade of Acheen, the remaining 34 were made up by Seamen from the different Merchant Navies and by Clerks and other Officials.

The principal diseases treated in this Ward have been as under.

Fevers	Dysentery
Rheumatism	Diarrhœa
Primary Syphilis	Debility
Secondary do.	Injuries
Beri-beri

The number of deaths which occurred amongst the European sick is 2; yielding a per centage of mortality of 2.98 to the total number treated. The causes of death were as follows :—

Abscessus	(Psoas)	1
Vul: penetrans Chest	(Gun shot)	1

Native Ward.—The number of patients admitted into the Native Wards amounts to 381, being a decrease of 49 below the admissions for the previous year; the number treated amounts to 388. The total number of deaths come up to 25, giving a percentage of 7.18 to total treated. The death rate is rather less than it was the previous year when the percentage was 7.66.

Nearly two-thirds of the deaths were caused by Poisons and Severe Injuries, the patients generally surviving their admissions to Hospital only by a few hours. The remaining 10 deaths resulted from General or Local Diseases.

Poisons.—Arsenic and Opium; one case of death from the former, and two from the latter of these causes.

Injuries.—Fourteen casualties from this cause,—the whole of these were cases of severe injury, either penetrating one or other of the cavities of the body or ending in mortification from extreme injury to the soft parts, and the generality of them died from 15 minutes to a few hours after admission. One fatal case recorded as Vulnus Lower Extremities and another as Vulnus A Tergo, died of Tetanus. The fatal cases of gun-shot wounds of the back, abdomen and lower extremities, were received from Laroot, during the late disturbances there.

Secondary Amputation.—In this case the subject was a Chinese who had both bones of the left leg completely shattered by a round shot at Laroot. The man was admitted into the General Hospital, Penang, on the 4th April, five days after the receipt of the injury; Gangrene had already set in. Amputation was performed on the 6th; the patient appeared to do well until noon the next day, when he very suddenly sank and died, evidently from blood poisoning, as there was no hœmorrhage to account for such a sudden fatal termination.

Civil Jail Hospital.—During the year 1873, the total number of Convicts treated in the Hospital, amounted to only 72. This falling off from the number treated in the previous year (viz., 177) was owing to the withdrawal of the Convict Establishment from Penang.

Of the number treated four died, the causes of death being as follows; one from Anasarca, one from Hepatitis, one from old age, and one from Debility.

House of Correction.—The total number of House of Correction Prisoners treated during the year under review, amounted to 33 Europeans and 502 Natives, which, added to the number of Convicts treated, gives a total of 607 patients who passed through the Hospital, being a considerable increase over those treated in the previous year. The death rate however was less. In 1872, the percentage of deaths amounted to 3.43 to the total treated, whilst in 1873, the percentage was only 2.58.

The cause of the extra amount of sickness was, in my opinion, owing to the large amount of rain-fall during the year, as those diseases chiefly prevailed which could be referred to atmospheric causes and exposure to wet, no less than 110 cases of Intermittent Fever, having been registered in the Annual Return.

The number of deaths which occurred amongst the Native Sick was 13, as follows :—

Paralysis	1
Pericarditis	1
Bronchitis Long	2
Phthisis	1
Alvus Soluta	2
Dysenteria	2
Senectus	1
Imbecillitas	3
Total	13

These were all from diseases which could scarcely be referred to local cause, and cannot be attributed to any defect in the sanitary condition of the prison, the cases of Dysentery and Chronic Diarrhœa all occurring in the persons of worn out men addicted to the abuse of Opium.

The large number of 44 cases of Primary Syphilis may be accounted for from the fact, that there was a considerable influx of diseased women into Penang from Singapore in the latter part of 1872, when the Contagious Diseases Ordinance first came into operation at that Settlement, these women leaving Singapore in order to escape from Medical examination and its attendant consequences, and seeking a refuge in Penang where the Ordinance had not yet been introduced.

Since the commencement of the year the inmates of what was called Her Majesty's Jail have been removed to the Civil Prison, Chowrusta, pending the construction of a new Prison with the incorporation of Her Majesty's Jail buildings, near the Sepoy Lines. A portion of the Civil Jail has been partitioned off for their reception, but ths is only a temporary measure until the new Prison is completed. This division of the Jail at Chowrusta will not tend to the improvement of its sanitary condition as the erection of the necessary walls of separation must very much interfere with free ventilation, and render the airing grounds and wards very hot.

The total number of Her Majesty's Jail prisoners treated during the year amounts to 53, without the occurrence of a single death.

The principal diseases treated were :—

Dysenteria	11
Alvus Soluta	4
Syphilis	4
Ulcus	6

Three men were executed for murder during the year.

Pauper Hospital Penang.—In February, 1873, the Pauper Hospital, which hay hitherto been supported by voluntary contributions and the interest of invested monei was taken over by the Government and incorporated with the other charitable Institutions of the Settlement. At the time of the Government assuming charge of the Establishment, there were 155 inmates, and the Building consisted of one large brief built quadrangle, having Wards on three sides capable of accommodating 82 inmates with an allowance of 1,000 cubic feet of space to each person. The gross amount of cubic space being 82,041 feet. Besides this there was an annex to the building, of an Attap Ward for the use of the Blind, containing 32,240 cubic feet of space. The average number of Blind, inhabiting this building being 41. At the time of the reconstruction of the Institution in the beginning of the year 1872, there were only from 35 to 40 inmates, (being chiefly Blind) in the whole Institution, but through the exertions of the Committee at the time of the Transfer, there were as I said before, 155 poor lodged and fed within the walls, but the space having been found too confined, a new wooden building 150 feet in length by 20½ in breadth, on piles, with Attap roof and plank flooring, was constructed and was on the point of being completed at the time the Hospital was handed over to Government. This new Ward contains 42,281 cubic feet of space, making with the cubic space of the original building an aggregate of 154,522 cubic feet. Since that time two new Attap Wards have been built on piles at right angles with the wooden Ward, each being 75 feet long, and 20½ broad, and each containing 21,134 feet of cubic space. Since the completion of these one half of the Blind Ward has been dismantled, and the other half used only as a work shop. The original buildings with the additions named, combined, contain 166,590 cubic feet of space, and can now afford sleeping accommodation for 166 persons, with an allowance to each of 1,000 cubic feet.

There are 3 latrines in which the Dry Earth system is carried out, and they are cleaned out every morning.

The number of patients treated during the year (from 14th February to 31st December, 1873,) amounted to 666, being 155 remained and new admissions 511; of these 171 died giving a death rate of 25.67 per cent. This mortality at first sight must appear astounding, but when we seek for an explanation we find it in the fact, that most of these people were sent to the Hospital in a hopeless condition,—many in a state of starvation; others quite broken down by Chronic and incurable diseases. It frequently happens that patients die within a few hours after admission, having been picked up by the Police lying in the five foot path in the town, shockingly diseased and destitute of every necessary. The pauper population of Penang has been largely fed by the weak and dying from the adjoining neighbouring states, and the recent disturbances at Laroot have much contributed to augment the numbers of distressed and half starved poor found in our streets.

The chief causes of death have been:—Phagedenic Ulcers mostly combined with Dysentery, Diarrhœa, General Dropsy from Organic disease of Liver, Ulcers and General Debility.

The supply of water is ample, there being three wells within the compound used for bathing purposes. The water for drinking purposes is obtained from a well outside the Hospital gates.

The Diet Scale now in use at the Pauper Hospital and which was adopted in August, 1873, is as follows:—

Rice	lbs. 1¼	Daily
Fresh fish	oz. 4	Thrice a	Week
Salt fish	„ 3	Twice	do.
Pork or Beef	„ 6	Do.	do.
Vegetables of sorts	„ 6	Daily
Salt	„ 0½	Do.
Cocoanut Oil or Lard	„ 0½	Do.
Firewood	lbs. 2	Do.

Leper Hospital—Pulo Jerajah.—This Hospital is built on the South front of Pulo Jerajah, an island situated at the Southern extremity of the Channel which separates Pulo Penang from the mainland, and is distant about 10 miles from George Town.

The building itself is well constructed and quite adapted for the purpose for which it is used. It is situated in the centre of a small crescent shaped Bay and has a southern aspect which is open to the Sea, from which it is distant about 40 yards. It is divided into Six Wards with corresponding out-houses which are thoroughly and well lighted and ventilated by numerous windows and doors. The Wards contain an aggregate of 132,240 cubic feet of space, affording accommodation for 132 men.

In September last the old fixed Sleeping benches which were in use, and which were considered objectionable, in so far that they impeded the floor ventilation and did not permit of the Wards being thoroughly swept out daily, were removed and replaced by separate beds; this, together with the introduction of ridge ventilation throughout the whole length of the building, has greatly improved the sanitary condition of the Hospital.

Forty-two lepers were treated in this Institution during the year, of these 4 died and 38 remained on the 31st December, 1873. There has not been much sickness amongst them other than leprosy; the diseases which prevailed together with the causes of death are shewn in the following Tabulated Form.

PROVINCE WELLESLEY.

Dr. Moniot having resigned his appointment in August, 1873, without leaving any record for the guidance of Medical Officer who succeeded him, and Dr. Coghill who was in Charge at the close of the year having also returned to Ceylon without leaving any notice of Medical transactions for the guidance of Dr. Orton who succeeded him, no Medical history of this Station can be procured; but from the Annual return it will be seen that the bulk of admissions were from diseases of the Bowels, principally Diarrhœa, an affection which the Coolies of the Estates are peculiarly disposed to; and there were thus treated for diseases of the Digestive System; 137 cases during the year, 129 of whom were admissions. The next largest number of admissions were for injuries, 85 cases were admitted during the past year.

It does not appear that there is anything else which calls for special remarks. No epidemic has appeared in the Settlement.
